THE COSTS OF DISCIPLESHIP

Today's responsorial psalm, Psalm 40, is more familiar to us with the refrain "Here am I, Lord." This "Here am I" is Jeremiah's great prophetic response to God's call. But today's story of Jeremiah and the refrain "Lord, come to my aid!" remind us that there are always two sides to following the call of God. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews knew this, too. He reminded his readers that even weighted down with burdens and sins, we can still persevere by keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who himself knew the shame and pain of the cross, but saw beyond it to the joy of sitting at the right of the throne of God.

Jesus himself gave the disciples a "sneak preview" of a baptism that would not be as wondrous as the one in the Jordan that inaugurated his ministry, but would be one of fire and anguish. Today's words from scripture may not be terribly soothing, but in their honesty and strength we can acknowledge the difficulties of daily discipleship, and take comfort in the assurance of our own salvation in Christ.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE: A WOMAN’S BIBLE STUDY

Starting September 13th !

This year’s study, Discovering our Dignity, gives us modern-day advice from women of the Bible. In Discovering our Dignity, we learn that women of the Old and New Testament were sometimes as flawed and broken as we can be. Yet, the power of God worked in their lives. Through their stories recorded in Scripture, they reach out to touch our “present” in a tender, honest and loving way –woman to woman.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

In our attempt to fulfill the perceived needs of our parishioners, our Adult Faith Formation committee is planning a one-day retreat on October 1, 2016.

Matt.9:13- But go and learn what this means: I desire mercy, not sacrifice. For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners. What Jesus was saying was if the Pharisees knew God and understood what really mattered to Him, they would not put such overemphasis on rules about such things as ritual cleanliness and restrictive Sabbath observance. Finally understood, God wants us to love Him sincerely not 'bribe' Him with our gifts and sacrifice. Jesus' sacrifice on the Cross was mercy and forgiveness personified. Come hear more at our retreat on Mercy, Oct 1, 2016 starting 8 AM Mass followed by a continental breakfast and box lunch and will be over by 3 PM. Register at lruppersberger@gmail.com for food count. Thanks.

St Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer

That during this Jubilee Year of Mercy, we will turn our hearts anew to the Lord and accept God's mercy and forgiveness, we pray to the Lord.

SAVE THE DATE FOR ST. IGNATIUS PARISH PICNIC
SEPTEMBER 18th 2PM—5PM

Lots of fun, good food, music and games!

Volunteers are needed to help at the picnic. Check future bulletins for details.

RESPECT ROSE OF LIFE INTENTION

For all who work in crisis pregnancy centers

The Respect Life committee is proud to announce a 'babies shower'; yes, that is correct a 'plural' babies shower for the entire month of October. The gifts will be awarded to the women and babies of the crisis pregnancy centers supported by the Legacy of Life Foundation. A crib will be placed in the main entrance to the Church and 'gift suggestions' will be available for individuals/family/friends to either purchase solo or in groups and then return unwrapped the following weekend to be placed in or next to the crib.

The Committee will collect the gifts weekly; these gifts will benefit these mothers and their children as they embark on their newly saved and graced lives. We have all purchased gifts for those we know; in this year of Mercy, let us all do a corporal work of mercy and gift these new families. If you cannot afford a gift at this time, please consider a spiritual work of mercy and pray for them and those who work at the Centers. Thank you.

"The Church always advances between the Cross and the Resurrection, between persecutions and the consolations of the Lord. This is the path: those who take the path do not go wrong".

Crisis pregnancy centers try to help moms with unexpected pregnancies to try to choose the path of life, as advanced by the Resurrection.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer:

For all those who are persecuted for their respect for human life: May the Lord strengthen their faith and assure them of His closeness; we pray to the Lord

To volunteer for H.O.P.E. or to use H.O.P.E., call Pat Furst at 215-801-0820.
