1992 FOOTBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
Co-coaches -- FRANK PODRAZA and KIM JOHNSON
Hitchcock-Tulare

Frank Podraza

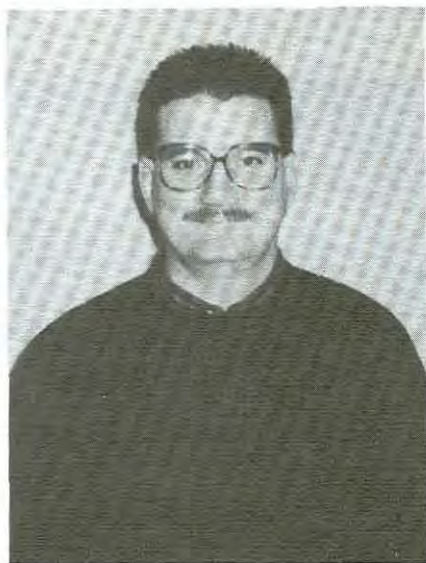

Kim Johnson

"We trust each other," commented veteran coach Kim Johnson. "That's the reason it works for us." The unusual co-coaching situation at Hitchcock-Tulare, which started with a co-op agreement in 1985, has resulted in eight straight playoff appearances by the Patriots, with a runner-up trophy in 1986 and a championship last fall.

Johnson runs the defense, and Podraza the offense in the unusual two-man situation. It marks the first time that the coaches association has honored co-coaches as Coach of the Year.

1992 BOYS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
NEIL GOTER, Marty

Neil Goter guided an inexperienced Marty team to the South Dakota Class "B" Cross Country Championship last fall, using his patented "slow start" philosophy.

Although they don't put in a lot of off-season miles, Goter brings his runners to their peak in late fall. He emphasizes the value of team depth and the team concept, placing four of his runners in the top sixteen to win the title.

1992 GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
CHUCK SEURER, Hoven

Five years ago, when Hoven had no cross country coach, the school custodian, a former Hoven High track star and an avid runner, Chuck Seurer, took over the program.

Last year his extraordinary effort resulted in a South Dakota State Cross Country Championship for Hoven -- an honor he modestly passes on to his team. For his dedication he has been named the Girls Cross Country Coach of the Year.

1992 GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
SHEILA HUTH, Hurley

The first time that Hurley had a team qualify for the state basketball tournament, coach Sheila Huth and her team made the most of it, capturing the State Class "B" title last spring.

Huth, a Wakonda native, had some excellent training as she worked with Ron Flynn and the powerful Wakonda dynasty before taking the reins at Hurley in 1991.

1993 GYMNASTICS COACH OF THE YEAR
MARK BELLUM, Watertown

In four years of coaching, Mark has moved his Watertown girls into the top echelon of South Dakota gymnastic teams.

A University of South Dakota graduate, Bellum's winning philosophy includes this item, "Having the girls feel good about themselves and their effort."

1993 WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR
BOB HIRSCH, Milbank

The Milbank wrestlers won 21 straight duals and meets last season but were edged by Watertown by a mere half point in their drive for the Class "A" state championship.

Bob has built an outstanding program in his eight years as head coach of the Bulldogs, but he is quick to share this glory, "More than anything, it's an honor for a group of hard-working kids and for our program," he points out.

1992 BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
CHUCK WELKE, Warner

Chuck Welke has become one of South Dakota's most successful basketball coaches in his sixteen years as his home town coach. His teams have been in six Class "B" tournaments, ending 1992 as the runner-up and winning their first championship in 1993. Welke has posted an outstanding 278-89 record.

1993 GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR
SUSAN HEITMANN, Britton

The Britton girls golf team, coached by veteran Susan Heitmann, posted their third Girls State Class B golf title in the past five years last spring. "I am very lucky to have girls who are dedicated. The high school season is really so short that the players must work a lot on their own in the off season to be good. They should start at an early age and develop good work habits to become proficient," coach Heitmann pointed out.

1993 GIRLS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
DUANE TORDOFF, Spearfish

Duane Tordoff's Spearfish girls track team ended an outstanding year with the state Class A girls championship in Sioux Falls in late May.

The Lady Spartans were the Black Hills champions and regional winners on their way to the top. "My girls were talented and dedicated," he commented. "They really wanted to win and they did. I am very proud of them."

1993 BOYS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
JEROME GARRY, Madison

Jerome Garry, in his first year as the Madison Bulldog's head boys track coach, had outstanding success, his team winning the State Class A track and field championship.

Coach Garry has been the head football coach at the school for the past six years, capturing the Big Eight Championship last year. He spent several years as an assistant with the Sioux Falls O'Gorman Knights before coming to Madison.

1993 VOLLEYBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
CHRIS SCHULTZ, Hurley

Chris Schultz has coached in Hurley for just two seasons - result: two Class "B" state volleyball champions. Twelve of her fourteen players were also members of the Hurley champion basketball team. "We were concerned that they would have a letdown, but we encouraged them not to be satisfied," Schultz said.

The Lady Bulldogs posted a 29-1 season record and were undefeated in state championship play.

1993 TENNIS COACH OF THE YEAR
MIKE BEGEMAN, Sioux Falls

The Sioux Falls O'Gorman girls rolled over the rest of the field to win the state Class AA girls tennis title last fall. For the fine showing, Coach Mike Begeman was selected to be the Tennis Coach of the Year.

Begeman, a native of Parker and a former Augustana basketball great, is also the coach of the O'Gorman boys basketball team. He is quick to give the girls on his tennis team credit for attaining success by working hard on their own during the off season.

1993 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
GARY SATTER, Yankton

Gary Satter, a Huron College graduate, has been a valued member of the Yankton High School football staff for eighteen years, working with both the offensive and defensive lines.

An excellent teacher, Satter stresses fundamentals and the values of team play. He is highly regarded by other coaches and is sought after for his fine presentation on lineplay at football clinics.

Off the field he is active in church and community activities. He acts as the advisor for the Y.H.S. F.C.A. Huddle.

1993 OFFICIALS OF THE YEAR

COLIN KAPITAN, Yankton and MARGE EVJEN, Sturgis

Colin Kapitan

Marge Evjen

The first two officials to be honored by the S.D.H.S.C.A. have certainly paid their dues.

Colin Kapitan has been officiating South Dakota high school sports for 35 years. He has worked 22 state basketball tournaments and has been a football playoff official since the playoffs began. Perhaps his most lasting efforts, however, are in the off-season training of young officials and in his interest in raising the level of competence and professionalism in officiating.

Marge Evjen has been a pioneer in the gymnastics movement in South Dakota. She has, in addition to coaching and teaching, spent twelve years as a very able judge for the sport. She has judged 20 regional meets and is a past-president of the state judges association.

1993 ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR
WAYNE CARNEY, Hayti

In addition to being recognized as one of South Dakota's best basketball coaches, Wayne has established himself as an outstanding athletic administrator.

A born leader with a strong sense of the importance of activities to the overall educational process, Wayne's knowledge and dedication have made him a major force in South Dakota high school athletics.

1993 SPORTSCASTER OF THE YEAR
JEFF ANDERSON, Madison

Long-time KJAM sportscaster Jeff Anderson has broadcast play-by-plays of more than 900 contests, including football, basketball and wrestling. He is being honored by the coach's association for his contributions to high school sports in the Madison area.

Since 1974 Anderson, a native Minnesotan, has worked games in the Madison listening area. He has been the "voice" of the Madison High Bulldogs and called many district and regional games for smaller schools. He is also heard doing Dakota State Trojan games.

MAX HAWK AWARD

This award, in honor of Max Hawk, is to recognize and honor outstanding leadership, contributions, and dedication of service to the South Dakota High School Coaches Association.

The countless hours of unselfish time and effort, the drive for excellence and the love for athletics and his fellow men personify Max Hawk.

The South Dakota
High School Coaches Association
is proud to recognize and honor

MARV SHERRILL

Watertown

as this year's recipient

1993 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Given for outstanding contributions to high school athletics and dedication to the highest and best in high school athletics.

HARVE JOHNSTON, Mitchell

One of South Dakota's best known sportsmen, Harve Johnston, has served as a high school sports official in football, basketball, track and baseball for forty-six years.

A native of Bradley, Harve is a popular and busy sporting goods dealer. He has previously been honored by the S.D.H.S.A.A., the National Federation of Interscholastic Coaches and Officials, the South Dakota Umpires Association, and is a member of the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame. Active in his community and his church, Harve and his wife are the parents of three children.

REGION SIX
BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
WAYNE CARNEY, Hamlin High School, Hayti

Region Six includes the states of Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Colorado.

Volunteers do everything there is to do in Special Olympics and more. They are fund-raisers and cheerleaders, administrators and food handlers, chauffeurs and chaperones, trainers and coaches, huggers and publicists, policy-makers and trash collectors, friends, comrades and supporters of Special Olympians.

They serve without salary, without recognition, without honors or awards. And Special Olympics could not do without them — their devotion, their work and their love.

So thank you, volunteers. You represent the highest values of the human spirit. And you get your thanks, not in money or words of praise, but through what you do for Special Olympics

For, as the poet E.A. Robinson said, "There are two kinds of gratitude; the sudden kind we feel for what we take. The larger kind we feel for what we give."

And that larger kind of gratitude is what we feel for you!
So THANKS.

"Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."

DON BAKER AWARD

Ron Stewart

The "Don Baker Award" is the highest received from South Dakota Special Olympics. It is given in honor of Don Baker who was a volunteer and official starter for Special Olympic events. The award is given annually to an individual, organization, business, or institution who has given outstanding support to South Dakota Special Olympics.

ROBERT E. BECKER AWARD

Tim Schellhouse

Outstanding Special Olympic Athlete - One who used his ability to the fullest.

ODE TO A VOLUNTEER

Many will be shocked to find
When the day of judgement nears
That there's a special place in heaven
Set aside for volunteers,
Furnished with big recliners,
Satin couches and footstools,
Where there are no committee chairmen
No group leaders or car pools,
No eager team that needs a coach,
No bazaar and no bake sale.
There will be nothing to staple,
Not one thing to fold or mail.
Telephone lists will be outlawed,
But a fingersnap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners,
And rare treats fit for a king.
You ask, who'll serve these privileged few
And work for all they're worth?
Why all those who reaped the benefits,
And not those once volunteered on earth.
