HEROES OF 1915

Maine had a fine season in 1915, rolling up six wins in nine games including a victory over Boston College. Verne Beverly (in later life a career county agent with the UM Extension Service) was the leading ground gainer and Charlie Ruffner made 35 extra points and four field goals in two seasons with his kicking ability. The Bears won the State Series with a perfect 3-0 league record. Front row, l-r, Jeremiah Reardon, Royal Higgins, Clinton Purington, Capt. Charlie Ruffner, Lew Kriger, and Bill Gorham. Second row, l-r, Fred Curtis, Pat Hussey, John Greene, Bill Daley, Julian "Buster" Greeley, Verne Beverly, and Coach Tom Hughliitt. Third row, l-r, Asst. Coach Bill Murray, Bill Allen, Parker Moulton, Phil Jones, Henry Peterson, George Kirk, and Trainer Art Smith.

1940 — A MEMORABLE GROUP OF PLAYERS

Maine's 1940 eleven was short on wins, but not in patriotism. Virtually all members were wearing their country's uniforms within two years and, tragically, at least six members (Roger Stearns, Al Edelstein, Fred Briggs, Ed Barrows, Don Holyoke, and Keith Grover) died in World War II combat. Stearns and Barrows were able leaders . . . Stearns captained the 1940 team and Barrows in 1941. The 1940 season was the final year of Fred Brice's 20-year coaching reign in Orono. Two team members, Bill Irvine and Einar Olson, became presidents of universities in the UM System in later years. Front row, kneeling, Mgrs. Francis Burger, left, and Dick Cranch, right. First row, l-r, Fred Briggs, Cliff Nickerson, Cy Brady, Al Edelstein, Capt. Roger Stearns, Ed Barrows, Jim Harris, Charlie Arbor, George Grant, Charles Gardner, Herb Johnson, and Don Holyoke. Second row, l-r, Carl Goodchild, Frank Austin, Maurice Geneva, Bill Irvine, Bob Dalrymple, Sam Dyer, Ray Gay, Einar Olsen, Tom Pollock, Dick Harlow, Jim Russell, Lowell Ward, and Trainer Stan Wallace. Third row, l-r, Dana Dingley, Keith Grover, Bob Roy, Nat Crowley, Dick McKeen, Ed Robinson, Ken Wright, Parker Small, Jim Smith, Jacob Stahl, Jacob Serota, and Bob McLeary.

1928 — ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

One of the golden eras in Maine football encompassed the seasons of 1926, 1927 and 1928 when Coach Fred Brice's teams won 17 games, lost only three and tied two. There were no polls in those years, but many sportswriters wrote that the Bears were the best in New England. Rosters of those seasons included a number of Maine's finest athletes of all time. George Coltart was an all-New England selection, scoring an amazing 143 points during the three years while Pat Peakes booted 39 extra points. The 1928 team, shown here, posted a 4-1-2 record. Front row, l-r, Coach Fred Brice, Ted Palmer, John Lynch, Edmund "Rip" Black, Capt. Jim Buzzell, George "Mike" Coltart, Warren Blockinger, Ken Young, and Lavon Zakarian. Second row, l-r, Mgr. Virgil Lancaster, Lyman Abbott, Eugene "Red" Vail, Lou Airoidi, Bill Gowell, Hank Horne, Ken Noddin, Bill Daley, Harry Moyer, and Asst. Coach Jack Quinn. Third row, l-r, Art Lufkin, Henry Plummer, Ralph Davis, Paul Hickson, Dick Bird, Sam Gray, Jack Moran, Hector Hebert, Bill Gowans, George Anderson, and Asst. Mgr. Jim Ashworth. Back row, l-r, Brad Merrill, Dave Barker, Hubert Tracy, Asa Wasgatt, John Laplante, Jim Elliott, Asst. Mgr. Henry Favor, Stan Painter, Sam Sezak, and Trainer Stan Wallace.

THE BEARS OF 1944

It didn't seem likely that football could continue at Maine in 1944 with a small number of male students on campus due to World War II, but Faculty Manager of Athletics Ted Curtis and Coach Bill Kenyon were able to put together a team consisting mostly of under-draft age freshmen. The team played four games, home and home arrangements with UNH and Norwich. Each series produced a win and a loss. Front row, l-r, Dick Kallgren, Dick Gillespie, Ken Reed, Dave Pierce, Harold Gilman, Leonard Plavin, Gene Long, Roy Moore, Al Miller, John Collins, and Harland Davis. Second row, l-r, Asst. Mgr. Ernest Sokol, Harold Lambert, Gene Boutillier, John Skofield, Hugh Hastings, Bill Wiggin, Tom Murray, Len Korobkin, Ralph Thompson, Leroy Henderson, Don Buckley, Charles Sawyer, Charles King, and Mgr. Edward Butler. Third row, l-r, Faculty Mgr. Ted Curtis, Sumner Gordon, John Mayo, John Goff, John Day, Joe Bosse, Joe Lupsha, Ken Hodson, Irving Garber, Mal Kittridge, Howard Erlick, and Coach Bill Kenyon.

1947 MAINE SQUAD

Coach Eck Allen's 1947 team lost only one game and was strongly considered for selection to the Sun Bowl. Henry "Rabbit" Dombkowski was named first team, all-East, and first team, Little All-America. A year later, Dombkowski and Jack Zollo were selected to play in the North-South Classic in Birmingham, Alabama. Zollo, a mechanical engineering major, was a highly-decorated hero of WW II (wounded eight times) and also was named first team, Little All-America in 1948. Front row, l-r: Alan Wing, Phil White, Harland Smith, Charles Cook, Reggie Lord, Hank Dombkowski, Phil Coulombe, Charles Loranger, Dick Tamm, Randy Adams, and Bob Beals. Second row, l-r, Trainer Stan Wallace, Steve MacPherson, Phil Murdock, Bob Emerson, Norm Benson, Capt. George Marsanskis, Sherwood Gordon, Hal Parady, Peter Tsacalotos, Asst. Coach Joe Zabilski, and Coach Eck Allen. Third row, l-r, Mgr. Jim Goodwin, Jim McBrady, Louis Oddi, Bill Ottman, Don Card, Jack Zollo, Art Clark, John Schmidlin, Alton Sproul, Dave Hall, and Harland Goodwin. Back row, l-r, Newell Emery, Don Barron, Ed McDermott, Stan Trask, Dick Lawson, Dave Cates, Freeman Phillips, Dick Reilly, Ralph Stark, and Ray Rideout.

1950 BLACK BEAR STAFF

Dave Nelson (second from left) Maine's head coach in 1949 and 1950, certainly had capable assistants in Hal Westerman, left, John Cuddeback, and Mike Lude. Nelson went on to Delaware, where he became a nationally prominent coach and administrator and for many years chaired the NCAA Football Rules Committee. Lude coached Maine's baseball team in 1950 and 1951 before moving on to athletic directorships at several major universities. At one time he was national president of the AD's association.

1951 — A LEGENDARY SEASON

Coach Hal Westerman's 1951 team was a legendary outfit. The Black Bears compiled the first undefeated record in UM history and won the Yankee Conference championship as well as the Maine State Series title. Decades later, veteran UM football fans still recall the exciting moments and the team members of the '51 squad. No less than four players (Ed Bogdanovich, Harry Easton, Peter Pocius, and Gene Sturgeon) were named first team, all-Yankee Conference and all-Maine. Dick Breen, Charlie Burgess, Jack and Jim Butterfield, Ed Cianchette, Ray Cox, Harry Richardson, and Bob Whytock were all-Maine and Jack Butterfield and Gordon Thorburn were second team, All-Yankee Conference. It was a great start to the career of Coach Westy, one which would continue for 15 more seasons. Front row, l-r, Walt Hewins, Bill Lindquist, Gordie Thorburn, Bob Hefler, Jim Butterfield, Perley Hamilton, Harry Easton, Capt. Pete Pocius, Gordie Pendleton, Charlie Burgess, Harry Richardson, Bob Whytock, Gene Sturgeon, and Win Brown. Second row, l-r, Glenn Folsom, Ed Bogdanovich, Woody Carville, Dick Breen, Gerry Hodge, Lucien Garneau, Bob Wallace, Al Card, Dick McGee, Ted Sparrow, Don Stevens, Jack Butterfield, Carl McDermott, Ray Cox, Steve Novick, Don Waterman, Allen Bancroft, and Vern Napolitano. Third row, l-r, John McCann, Tom Pike, George Benoit, Ron Perry, Walter John, Jerald Fletcher, Bill Grove, Erving Bickford, Joe Bernard, Joe Alex, Vince Calenda, Mark Lieberman, and Dave Wiggin.

1953 — ANOTHER FINE SEASON

The 1953 season was another strong campaign by a Black Bear eleven. Co-Capt. Ed Bogdanovich was a one-man wrecking crew, leading the team in most offensive categories, including punting. Vince Calenda scored nine touchdowns, fourth highest single season mark in UM history, and averaged 7.3 yards per carry. Dave Wiggin, outstanding in both football and baseball, averaged six yards per carry and guard Tom Golden was named first team, Little All America. Golden also was first team, all-Yankee Conference and all-Maine, and Bogdanovich, Calenda, Ed Cianchette, Lew Clark, and Ken Woodsum were all-Maine. Members of Coach Hal Westerman's third team were, front row, l-r, Don Shields, Lucien Garneau, Ernie Smart, Dexter Early, Tom Golden, Co-Capt. Ed Bogdanovich, Vince Calenda, Ron Perry, Steve Novick, Ken Woodsum, Lew Clark, and Clay Beal. Second row, l-r, Wally Covell, Ralph Wood, Chuck Lavoix, Walt Placzankis, Tom Pike, Co-Capt. Ed Cianchette, John McCann, Ted Maher, Jack Small, Don Douglas, Fran Pluta, and Dave Smith. Back row, l-r, Tom Dole, Jon Appel, Bruce Munn, Rod Cyr, Otis Anthony, Joe Mawson, Roy Selland, Mike Nagem, Dan Rossano, Charlie Furlong, Cole Nice, Dick McGee, Kevin Cadieux, Jim Duffy, Bob Giguere, and Warren Griffin. Absent, Dave Wiggin, Ed Guernsey, and Jim Holland.

1901 — A WONDERFUL SEASON

The Black Bears of 1901 had a very special season. They won seven games, a number to be repeated only twice more (1912 and 1926) until Hal Westerman's team won eight games in 1961. They won seven games by shutout, a record that still stands. Capt. Carlos Dorticos scored 41 points on six touchdowns (a TD counted for five points in those days) and 11 extra points. It was the first season Maine won the State Series and the excitement was high enough to merit a chartered train from Bangor to Brunswick filled with hundreds of students and fans to watch the Bears beat Bowdoin 22-5 in the final game of the season. Coach of the team was J. Wells Farley, one of the nation's top players as an undergraduate at Harvard. Posing for the team photo were, front row, l-r, Alex Taylor, Charles Bailey, and Edward Parker. Second row, l-r, Alfred Davis, Capt. Carlos Dorticos, Winfield Cole, and Clint Rackliffe. Third row, l-r, Asst. Mgr. Isaac Treworgy, Art Towse, Luther Bradford, Paul Bean, and Mgr. Luther Peck. Back row, l-r, Wesley Elliott, Jim Sawyer, Harry Duran, Francis Webster, and Edwin Bearce.

MORSE FIELD AT ALFOND STADIUM

Maine's football games were played for many decades on Alumni Field, named in recognition of the countless gifts of funds from alumni to support Maine athletics. In 1998, a new grandstand was constructed, made possible by generous donations from Harold Alfond and Philip and Susan Morse. Some 9,244 were on-hand for the dedication game that resulted in a 52-28 win over New Hampshire. Cost of the facility was 6.1 million dollars. Mr. Alfond contributed 3.1 million, the Morses 2.15 million, with the remaining funds donated by many alumni and friends.

The facility includes lights, a digital scoreboard and an astroturf field surface. The new press box includes ample space for reporters, broadcast crews, guests of the University president, restrooms, an elevator, kitchen and storage areas. The new field is also home to Maine's field hockey team.

RING OF HONOR

A new chapter in Maine football history occurred in 2003 when the University inducted John Huard as the first member of a "Ring of Honor." Huard has been recognized on many occasions as Maine's greatest football player ever. He was an All-American and two-time all-Yankee Conference linebacker. He played four seasons in the National Football League, coached and played in the Canadian Football League, and coached successfully at the college level in Canada and the U.S.

John has been a generous contributor to the University on many occasions, the most recent was his gift of an artificial grass surface in the Mahaney Dome. His name and number #32 are engraved on signage on the east side of the football grandstand.

1958 BLACK BEARS

The 1958 edition of Maine football was a successful team, posting a 6-2 record and finishing second in the Yankee Conference. Fullback Bob Bragg averaged over seven yards per carry, with Wayne Champeon right behind with a 6.9 average and Jack Welch had a five yards per carry average. The club's only loss in YC play was to Connecticut. Champeon, Roger Ellis, Niles Nelson and Harold "Tank" Violette were first team, all-Yankee Conference and Ellis and Chuck Eberbach were all-Maine. Quarterback Bob Pickett, who had a fine season, went on to have a very successful career as head coach of football at UMass. Front row, l-r, Randy White, Bob Webber, Dave Kerry, Vince Trincia, Gerry deGrandpre, Bob Pickett, Dick Pottle, Capt. Niles Nelson, Bob Bower, Hal Violette, Dave Baribeau, Wayne Champeon, Art Miles, and Jimmy Cutler. Second row, l-r, Ewen MacKinnon, Chet Dana, Tim Mynahan, Stan Masalsky, Joe Grownney, Ken Pinkham, Phil Clemente, Charlie Eberbach, Tom Vasser, Roger Ellis, Jack Welch, John Theriault, Dick Drisko, and Ron Boutet. Back row, l-r, Ed Manson, Jim Soper, Bob Bragg, Maury Dore, Charles Babb, Haddon Libby, Dick Leadbetter, Ron Caselden, Jim Oshsner, Dick Kinney, Tony Koris, Cal Bickford, and Dick Lary.

ASSISTANT COACHES

(Ed. Note: Locating names of men who have served as assistant coaches for varsity, junior varsity, and freshman teams over the years was quite a task. Game programs, team photos, and yearbooks were among sources utilized. It is possible some names are missing. To those that are absent, we apologize and would like to hear from anyone who can add to the list for a future publication. This listing dates from the early 1920s. Approximately half of those listed were or are full-time; the others part-time, or grad assistants, or they served on a voluntary basis.

1955 — A TERRIFIC SEASON

Coach Hal Westerman's fifth year at the helm was another successful year for Maine football as the Black Bears won the Maine State Series title and finished second in the Yankee Conference as only a seven-point loss to Rhode Island in the opening game of the season marred an otherwise perfect league record. Maine had a terrific line, led by all-Maine selections Paul Boucher, Thurlow Cooper, Rollie Merrifield, Bob Provencher and Bill Tarazewich. Jack Small became the first player in YC history to be selected first team twice in different positions, once as a center (1954) and once as a fullback (1955). He was joined by Cooper and Jim Duffy on the all-Yankee Conference team. Front row, l-r, Wes English, Ray Hostetter, Norm Cole, Mike Nagem, Jan Saleeby, Rollie Merrifield, Aram Garabedian, Bob Provencher, Co-Capt. Jim Duffy and Jack Small, Thurlow Cooper, Don Douglas, Warren Griffin, Peter Kostacopoulos, John Edgar, Paul Boucher, and Rod Cyr. Second row, l-r, Peter Thompson, Archie Manoogian, Alan Merritt, Alan Lewis, Dick Irwin, Bill Tarazewich, Ed Soper, Walt Abbott, Cal Bickford, John Castor, Don LeBlanc, Dick Geiere, Ron Cutliffe, Charles Thibodeau, Jim Carroll, John Goodman, Jim Varner, and Herb Carmichael. Third row, l-r, Bob Cecchini, Don Shields, Ralph Wood, Dick Upham, Wayne Ross, Leroy Moulton, Paul McCourt, Ralph Harvey, Carroll Denbow, Bob Carmichael, Walt Sawyer, Joe Mancini, Joe Herbert, and Jerry Michael.

1952 – YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS AGAIN

For the third time in the six-year existence of the Yankee Conference, Hal Westerman's Black Bears were on top, although they had to share the title with Connecticut and Rhode Island. Brothers Jack and Jim Butterfield were co-captains, marking the first time in UM history that brothers shared the leadership role. Jack averaged 5.9 yards per carry and Ed Bogdanovich gained ground at a 4.3 yards per carry average. Ken Parady completed 51 percent of his passes and Jim Butterfield was named first team, all-YC. Front row, l-r, Billy McCann, Joe Alex, Dick McGee, Dick Breen, Gordon Thorburn, Harry Richardson, Co-Capt. Jack and Jim Butterfield, Al Card, Gerry Hodge, Don Stevens, Don Waterman, Woody Carville, Fred Dolan, and Dave Wiggin. Second row, l-r, Walter John, Ernie Smart, Fred Maher, Bruce Munn, Ed Bogdanovich, Bob Wallace, Charles Furlong, Bill Grove, Lucien Garneau, Ed Cianchette, Bob Quinn, Lew Clark, Clay Beal, Steve Novick, Vince Calenda, Tom Golden, Ron Perry, and Tim Pike. Back row, l-r, Joe McBrine, Ed Guernsey, Herb Gray, Wayne Bennett, Brad Hall, Dick Whatley, Jim Randall, Kevin Cadieux, Roger Miles, Dexter Earley, Cole Nice, Joe Mawson, Norm Stetson, Ken Parady, Wally Covell, Ed Woodsum, Bill Tiedeman, Chellis Smith, Dick Staples, and Frank Pluta.

THE GREATEST COMBACKS?

On Oct. 8, 1983, Maine was playing at Lafayette, at the time ranked 12TH in the nation in Division IAA. Entering the fourth period, the home team led, 38-14. Maine scored 25 points in the final 15 minutes to win, 39-38. The final three came on a field goal by Jack Leone. During the period Mike Beauchemin threw TD passes to Bob Jowett and Clay Pickering and ran for one touchdown himself. Some 18 years earlier, Maine, trailing Youngstown 22-7 half, rallied to win, 27-22 with three TDs in the final 8:10. The final TD came on a 49-yard pass from Frank Harney to Norm Tardiff.

1950 — A STRONG MAINE TEAM

The 1950 season was the second of Dave Nelson's two years as Maine's head coach. The future Delaware coach and athletic director led the Bears to a 5-1-1 record, including a State Series crown and a second place finish in the Yankee Conference. It was the first half of one of the most successful two year periods in UM football history with Hal Westerman's 1951 team posting a 6-0-1 record. Front row, l-r, Prescott Johnson, Dick Powell, Gordon Reade, Tayden Farrington, Ellis Bean, John Pochebit, Steve Emmons, Ray Cox, Bob Ehrlich, and John McGuire. Second row, l-r, Dick McGee, Milt Victor, Fred Fitanides, John Royal, Seymour Card, Jim Sullivan, Les Leggett, Alvin Mason, Russ Noyes, Larry Hersom, Dick Largay, Phil Coulombe, and Hal Marden, Third row, l-r, Mgr. Alan Pease, Ray Atherton, Graydon Erickson, Don Stevens, Dick Wheeler, Gerry Morse, Jim Butterfield, Tom Fogler, Paul Tibbetts, Harry Easton, Karl Burton, Perley Hamilton, Gene Sturgeon, Bob Whytock, Charlie Burgess, Capt. Peter Pocius, Vern Napolitano, and Trainer Stan Wallace. Fourth row, l-r, Brad Maxwell, Fred Dolan, Charlie Foote, Al Card, Don Waterman, Gerry Hodge, Harry Richardson, Gordon Thorburn, Walt Hewins, Dick Breen, Jack Butterfield, and Joe Alex.

2002 – NCAA TOURNAMENT FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

Jack Cosgrove established himself as one of Maine's top coaches ever in leading the Black Bears to their second stright NCAA tournament in 2002 where they advanced to the second round after beating Appalachian State on its home field. The Bears won 11 games, a UM record, a Yankee Conference title, and were led by several outstanding players. Linebacker Stephen Cooper was YC defensive player of the year and was selected to the 1AA All-American team. Dave Cusano and Dennis Dottin-Carter also were first team, all-YC. 1956 — ANOTHER GOOD YEAR

Thurlow Cooper was the first Maine player ever drafted and signed to a National Football League contract. It occurred shortly after the end of the 1956 season in which his play helped the Bears to a 5-2 record, including a second place finish in the Yankee Conference. Cooper and Ray Hostetter were named first team, all-Yankee Conference. The roster also included Roger Ellis, the second Maine player to become a regular in the NFL. Front row, l-r, Bob Provencher, Vern Moulton, John Edgar, Ken Parady, Carroll Denbow, Bill Tarazewich, John Castor, Co-Captains Pete Kostacopoulos and Thurlow Cooper, Aram Garabedian, Cal Bickford, Ed Soper, Walt Abbott, Ray Hostetter and Norm Cole. Second row, l-r, Dave Rankin, Bob Carmichael, Phil Haskell, Wayne Ross, Charlie Thibodeau, Francis Pettis, Paul Lanigan, Roger Ellis, Dick Geier, Charlie Eberbach, Jim Varner, Bob Bower, Ed Akucewich, Ed Shimmin, and Jerry Michael. Third row, l-r, George McCarthy, Joe Herbert, Walt Sawyer, Joe Mancini, Paul McCourt, Niles Nelson, Tom Sezak, Will Farnham, Ed Manson, Alan Merritt, Phil Clemente, John Goodman, John Theriault, John Corson, Dave Brown, John Mininutti, Clinton Cushman, Jim Soper, and Dave Rand.

1983 BLACK BEARS

Although just missing a .500 record with four wins in six games, the 1983 Maine squad nevertheless was a competitive and exciting team. Proof of the team's gutsy play came in the game against Lafayette when the Bears rallied from a 24-point, fourth-period deficit to win, 39-38, in one of the most exciting games in UM history. Front, l-r, Mike Ibrahim, John McGrath, Dave Sanzaro, Matt Bennett, Bob Jowett, Matt Walsh, Chuck Deluga, Capt. Dean Ramsdell, Russ Muise, Kevin Tarr, Mike Atkins, Dan McClung, Jim Farley, John Hodgkins, and Hugh Campbell. Second row, l-r, Mike Garcia, John Colasacco, Gary Groves, Tip Spina, Gary Hufnagle, Tom Gorman, Mike Beauchemin, Paul Phelan, Chris Boswell, Bob Crowley, Phil Ernst, Joe McDonald, Ron Doody, Al Peterson, and Rich Smith. Third row, l-r, Steve Costello, Todd McAniff, Pat Murray, Bill Paven, John Lucy, Peter Casey, Ray Paquette, Bryan Hermick, Paul Buckley, Skip Foley, Bob Brainerd, Jamie Keefe, Jim Shutt, Paul Misiaszek, Paul Hughes, and Dan Maloney. Fourth row, l-r, Steve Root, Clay Pickering, Bob Marcantonio, Chris Gsell, Jim Hinds, Chris Gordon, Jack Leone, Nick DiPaolo, Rich LaBonte, Peter Lennon, Mark Coutts, Rick Ouellette, Lance Theobald, Kurt Barnes, Jeff Durr, Tim Cahill, and Dave Bochtler. Fifth row, l-r, Dan Reilly, Bryan O'Leary, Stu Pelkey, Tim Doyle, Tom Dioszoghly, Chris Peucker, Dale Plummer, Mike Bruschini, Joe Bubba, Jay Davenport, Jeff Tannetta, Todd Pickard, Tom DiGeronimo, Chris Gillman, Jon Ziegler, Marc L'Heureux, and Bob Wilder. Sixth row, l-r, Duane Ellis, Chris Boisvert, Al Cowan, Dave Ingalls, Mike Walsh, Charles Arslan, Bob Knoth, Scott Paquette, Peter Wright, Peter Vigliano, Scott Wallace, Calvin Stanton, and Steve Violette. Back row, l-r, Asst. Coaches Mark Harriman, Steve Tosches, Craig Cason, John Skladany, Bob Depew, Coach Ron Rogerson, Asst. Coaches Max Lowe, Mike Hodgson, Mark Hackett and Peter Ouellette, and Trainer Wes Jordan.

1956 MAINE FOOTBALL LEADERS

Head Coach Hal Westerman had a terrific staff in 1956. L-r, Lew Clark, Jack Butterfield, Westerman, Jim Butterfield, and Sam Sezak. Jack Butterfield was national coach of the year in baseball in 1964 after leading Maine to the College World Series and later became an executive with the New York Yankees. Brother Jim went on to coach many successful teams at Ithaca College and also was a national coach of the year in college football. All four of Westy's '56 assistants were outstanding players as undergraduates on the Orono campus.

13 James Madison	3	Maine and URI made football history on Sept. 18, 1992, when it took six overtime periods under the NCAA's new overtime rule to decide the game outcome. Played in Orono, the game became the longest in NCAA history. The game ball, game program, and other memorabilia rest in the College Football Hame of Fame. The game ended when URI, passing up an opportunity to tie on a field goal, ran a flanker reverse on fourth down to score a touchdown and win the game, 58-55.
14 Richmond	3	A year later, when the two teams met in Kingston, the game was aired nationally on CBS, which, at that time, had an exclusive contract with the NCAA to carry college football games. This was before the advent of cable sports channels. Credit for placing the game before a national audience, which may have been the largest ever to watch a UM contest in any sport, went to a 1950 UM grad, George Gonyar of Orono, who served for many years as head of WABI-TV in Bangor, a CBS affiliate. Mr. Gonyar utilized his long-standing relationship with CBS executives in New York to convince the network to carry the game. The University received a rights fee in excess of $200,000. as the result of his efforts.

THE INFAMOUS BAT-BALL TRICK

It was one of the most memorable moments in UM football history. In a game at Durham on Oct. 14, 1978, where Maine was a 24-point underdog, the Black Bears tied the Wildcats on a play drawn up by Coach Jack Bicknell and resulted in instant controversy. It became known as the "infamous bat-ball trick." On an attempted field goal attempt, QB Tony Trafton took the snap, but instead of placing the ball down, he flipped it behind him to kicker Mike Hodgson who batted the ball volleyball style. It landed on the UNH 5-yard line and rolled into the end zone. While UNH players stood spellbound, Maine's Dave Higgins fell on the ball for a touchdown. The play was legal at the time, but the storm of controversy that followed resulted in a decision shortly thereafter by the NCAA Rules Committee that outlawed it henceforth.

N.C.A.A. CHAMPIONSHIPS

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) established a post-season tournament in Division IAA in 1978. Since that time, four Maine teams have qualified for that prestigious event. It should be noted that all of Maine's games have been played at the opponents' home fields. In 1987 and 1989 Maine advanced to the quarterfinal round; in 2001 and 2002 the Bears continued to the semi-final round before elimination.

1960 MAINE STAFF

Maine football men learned much about how the game should be played from this quartet of outstanding coaches. L-r, Asst. Coaches Walt Abbott and Jack Butterfield, Head Coach Hal Westerman, and Asst. Coaches Dave Rand and Woody Carville. All four assistants were outstanding UM players as undergraduates. Abbott served as an assistant coach from 1960-66 and head coach from 1967-75. Butterfield spent 14 seasons (1955-69) on the UM staff. Rand was a staff member from 1960-65 and Carville served in 1953 and again from 1960 to 1965.

SEASON BY SEASON SCORING LEADERS

1892 – 1897

As touchdowns counted for four points during this period, the listing includes players who scored eight or more points or the team's leading scorer. Field goals also counted for four points, but there is no evidence of any successful attempts during this six-year period. Number of games played by the team is in parenthesis.

1898 – 1911

Touchdowns counted for five points and field goals for four points during this period. Players who scored ten or more points or the team's leading scorer are listed. Number of games played by the team is in parenthesis.

1912 – Present

Beginning with the 1912 season, touchdowns counted for six points and field goals for three points. From 1912 on, the listing includes players who scored 12 or more points or the team's leading scorer. Number of games played by the team is in parenthesis.

1959 BLACK BEAR FROSH

Sam Sezak, one of the most familiar and admired figures in UM sports history, was affiliated with UM football for many seasons. He was a freshman player in the fall of 1927 and earned his varsity letter in 1930. Between 1941 and 1959 he coached at the freshman, junior varsity, and varsity levels. He spent most of his time with freshman gridders, coaching the 1941 team and all of the teams between 1947 and 1959. Members of the 1959 team, his final, are shown above. Front row, l-r, Jim Brown, Peter MacPhee, Norm Perrault, Bruce Allman, Marshall Pratt, Frank Tarazewich, Alton "Bump" Hadley, Gary Greene, Ted Rose, Dave Murch, and Brian O'Connor. Second row, l-r, Alan Ramsdell, Norwood Mansur, Fred Metzler, Michael Bond, Allen Wrubleski, Bob Johnston, Art Roberts, Dave Rogers, John Roberts, and Arthur Leavitt. Third row, l-r, Allan Taylor, Dave Ferris, Charles Murphy, Reginald Libby, Jeff Jowdry, Bob Robertson, Jim Houle, Charles Armstrong, Bob Craig, Tom Austin, and Charles Pierce. Fourth row, l-r, Asst. Coaches Niles Nelson, Will Farnham, and Ken Perrone, Coach Sam Sezak, and Mgrs. Roland Wasgatt, Walter Durgin, and Bob Provencher. Absent, Asst. Coach Bob Flynn, Ray Caldwell, John Foley, John Holmes, Fred James, and Fred Sampson.

1960 FROSH GRIDDERS

Woody Carville had a reputation for being able to coach teams in just about every sport. And, for several seasons during the 1960s, he coached freshman baseball, freshman basketball, and freshman football all in the same year. Many of the young men he helped with their skills and character development went on to be outstanding in varsity sports, and in later life. Members of his first frosh football unit, the 1960 team, were, front row, l-r, Bruce Cliff, Bob Boucher, Dick Kerry, Bob Laberge, Ray Cushman, Don Emery, and Don Soler. Second row, l-r, Asst. Coach Bob Bragg, Bill Browne, Alan Wilkinson, Avard Walker, Wayne Tyler, Sidney Maillet, Ernest Torok, George Predaris, Dave Brown, and Coach Carville. 1965 TANGERINE BOWL TEAM

Nineteen sixty-five was a magical year for Maine football. The Black Bears, with seven first team, all-Yankee Conference selections, crushed YC opponents by an average of 23 points per game on route to a perfect 5-0 league record and the championship. At year's end, the Bears were invited to the first ever bowl game for a Maine team, the Tangerine Bowl in Florida. All-YC choices were Dick DeVarney, who set seasonal records for passing yardage (1,592) and touchdowns (17), Ivan Braun, Frank Harney, John Huard, Bill Pasquill, Alan Riley, and Norm Tardiff. Front row, l-r, Jim Sanders, Walt Nelson, Bob Kocsmiersky, Frank Harney, Ron Lanza, John Libby, Vern Walker, Co-Capts. Alan Riley and Walter Hirst, Dave Harnum, Doug Avery, Bob Stolt, Dick DeVarney, Ivan Braun, and Mike Hodges. Second row, l-r, Tom London, Norm Tardiff, Paul Keany, Paul Pendleton, John Sherry, Dennis Doyle, Bill Pasquill, John Fahlgren, Gerry Perkins, Fred Lovejoy, John White, John Huard, Charles Belisle, Dave Sawyer, Paul Smith, Larry Richards, and Dana Mulholland. Back row, l-r, Carl Winslow, Don White, Dave Werdin, Charles McDonald, George Wilcox, Keith Kalman, Dennis Carey, Bill Beeaker, Pete Norris, Dick Irons, George Platter, Jim Goble, Terry Carter, Sumner Wright, Mike Connolly, Carl Fitzgerald, and Coyne Turcotte.

1969 — A FINE SEASON

The Black Bears of the fall of 1969 proved to be a competitive outfit, posting a winning record and finishing second in the Yankee Conference. Stan Maddock and Gene Benner were first team, all-YC selections. It was the final season for Benner who established new UM records for passes caught with 55 for the season and 135 in three varsity campaigns. Dave Wing passed for 1,437 yards, second highest in UM history, and Dan Sullivan was the principal ball carrier with 10 touchdowns and a 5.1 yards per carry average. Front row, l-r, Rick Coffin, Stan Vasalle, Mike Barra, Steve Naccara, Paul Pooler, John Dugas, Dennis Walch, Capt. Paul Dulac, Dan Sullivan, Dave Wing, Jay Vance, Dave Coffin, John Collins, Tom Jordan, and John Wolfgram. 1982 — YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Ron Rogerson served as Maine's head coach for four seasons, 1981-84. The 1982 season may have been the best as the Black Bears posted a 7-4 record and were co-champions of the Yankee Conference. No less than six players (Ray Sullivan, Rich Labonte, Jack Leone, John McGrath, Lou Ortiz, and Dave Sanzaro) were first team, all-YC selections. The team will be forever known in U.S. football annals as participants in the longest college game ever played, a five-overtime affair vs. Rhode Island. Front row, l-r, Tom Ellison, Ted Venechanos, Ray Sullivan, Lorenzo Bouier, Matt Downey, Lou Ortiz, Peter Smith, Steve Keating, Barry Buckley, Bob Lucy, John Chisholm, Craig Reynolds, Hugh Campbell, Dean Ramsdell, and Jim Hersom.

* * * * *

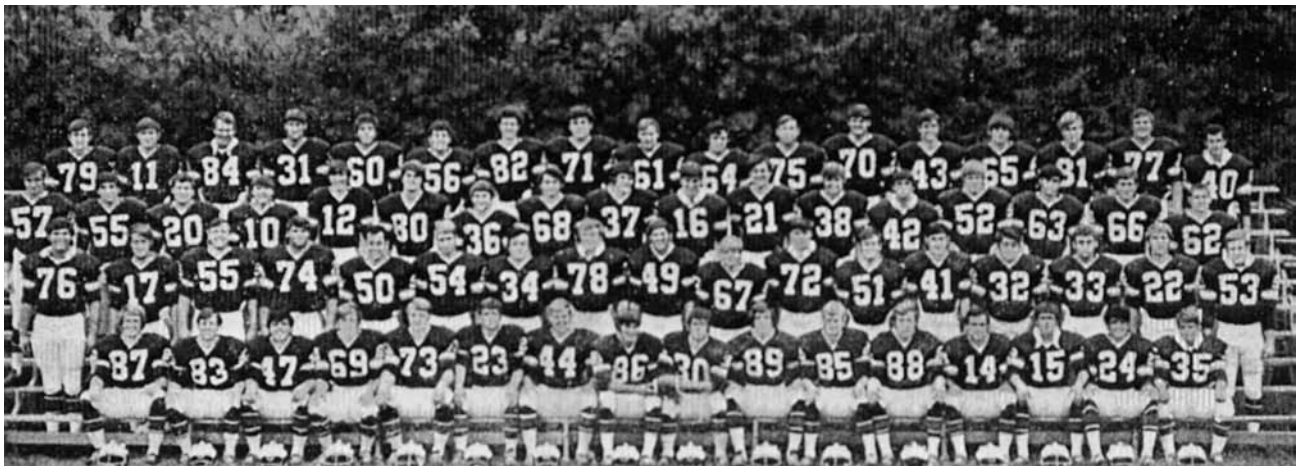

Remembering his first year at Maine, as told by William B. Alexander, president of the Class of 1907: "In our freshman year (1903) several of our class made the football team coached by that enthusiastic, inspirational leader, Mike Farley, still an active lawyer in Boston, who was then paid what we considered the fabulous wage of $100 a week for the 12-week football season. We had won most of our games up to the final one at Brunswick, so had Bowdoin, and we were the first team to play on the new Whittier Field which was christened that day. At the end of a bitterly contested first half the score was 0-0. On the second half kickoff, our quarterback, Bailey, surrounded by perfect interference, scored a touchdown and before Bowdoin fully recovered we had won the game, 16-0, and also the state championship."

1971 BLACK BEARS

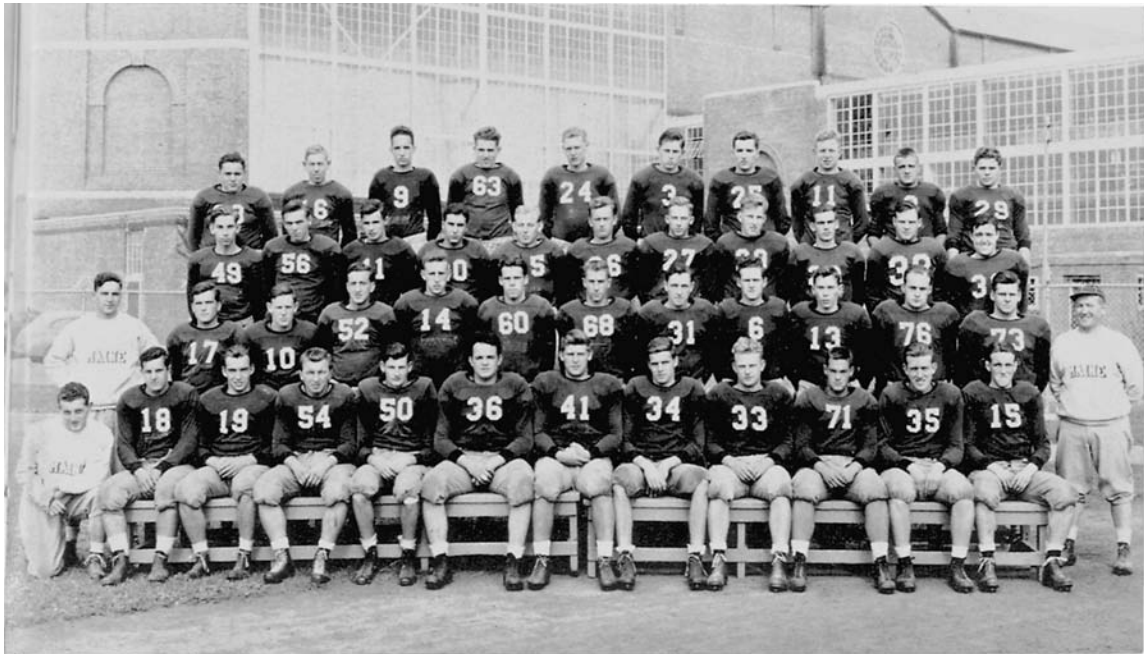

Maine's 1971 team was typical of the nine teams coached by Walt Abbott between 1967 and 1975....a hard hitting and spirited squad that stood its ground in the face of bigger and more experienced opponents. Dave Paul gave Maine fans thrills with 47 pass receptions, an all-time UM record. He was named first team, all-Yankee Conference, and earned that honor again in 1972. Several team members went on to have successful careers in the high school and college football coaching ranks. Front row, l-r, Chris Cloutier, Dennis Lyonnais, Bob Iwaszko, Dick Faulkner, Dick Todd, Steve Crane, Jim Hayes, Co-Capts. Stan Maddock and Bill Swadel, Tom Keating, Dave Goodspeed, Paul Soucy, Pat Ladd, Jim Walsh, Dave Eretzian, and Steve Swindels. Second row, l-r, George Frazza, Glenn Winslow, Herb Carey, Greg Flaherty, Dick Bergerson, Gary Worthing, Kevin Foley, Mark Russell, Bob Hayes, Don Skroski, Reg Preble, Marc Laroche, Phil O'Brien, Joe LeVasseur, Mike Porter, Jack Lamborghini, and Dale Russell. Third row, l-r, Charlie Judge, Mike Ganacoplos, Jon Price, Ron Cote, Sandy Hastings, Sam Estey, Dana Hamel, Dennis McCarthy, Richard Ristau, Bob Brattan, Vic Tessari, Bob Harkins, John O'Rourke, Greg Crocker, Bill Lopes, John Filloramo, and Mike Mealey. Back row, l-r, Craig Thomas, Doug Lentz, Mark Watson, Bob Fanjoy, Carl Parker, Joe Cornacchio, John Squires, Bob Dupill, Bob McConnell, Walt Hall, Frank Spencer, Andy Mellow, Bill Hamlin, Dick Jagoutz, Dave Paul, Ron Puchalski, and Jim Reid.

2001 — ANOTHER NCAA TOURNAMENT BID

Maine's 2001 team was a terrific outfit, tying a UM record for most wins (9), earning a Yankee Conference title and a trip to the NCAA Tournaments. The Black Bears won its opening round game vs. McNeese State, a first NCAA victory for a Maine team. Coach Jack Cosgrove's roster had many fine players, including all-YC selections Lennard Byrd, Stephen Cooper and Chad Hayes. Royston English rolled up 1,301 yards by rushing and Jake Eaton compiled amazing passing numbers...204 completions, 2,703 yards, and 23 touchdown passes. Stefan Gomes had 81 receptions. Jack Cosgrove, for the second time, was named Coach of the Year in the YC. Front row, l-r, Ernie Svolto, Dave Ellis, Justin Davis, Tri-Capt. Malik Nichols, Chad Hayes, and Zack Magliaro, Damon Boinske, Royston English, and Lennard Byrd. Second row, l-r, Paris Minor, Matt Hammond, Amos Hall, Rob Kierstead, Brendan Curry, Brian Williams, Stephen Cooper, Jake Eaton, John Gelsomino, and Mark Lehner. Third row, l-r, Rob Brooks, John Kmety, Pete Richardson, Jimmy Pederson, Brian Mann, Dave Cusano, Derek Martinez, Eric Swick, and John Baumgartner.

Fourth row, l-r, Ivi Nwosu, James Henry, Mike Leconte, Marcus Walton, Freddy Lazo, Dennis Dottin-Carter, Ben Burklow, Matt DiBiase, Jon Meczywor, Agean Robinson, and Chris DeVinney. Fifth row, l-r, Justin Knox, Devon Goree, Bill Roak, Mark Moehl, Nicholas Pulire, Dan Joslyn, Nick Wilson, Joshua Watson, John Padavan, Gary Tougas, and Matt Brunetti. Sixth row, l-r, Mark Stetson, Pat Kenney, Chris Legree, Dandre Arrington, Ryan and Ron Waller, Onyi Momah, Erik Iverson, John Castoro, Mike Mellow, Keith Ford, and Patrick Pau. Seventh row, l-r, Lofa Tatupu, Michael Zyskowski, Stefan and Jarod Gomes, Christian Pereira, Brandon McGowan, Ben Donovan, Ben Lazarski, Dante Fusco, Dzigbodi Abibio, Josh Radulski, Kurk Bulwith, and Marcus Williams. Eighth row, l-r, Mgr. Michael Uhrin, Trainer Paul Culina, Asst. Coaches Chris Binder, Jeff Comissiong, Jeff Cole, Matt Griffin, Assoc. Head Coach Bob Wilde, Coach Jack Cosgrove, Asst. Coaches Rich Nagy, Eric Marsh, Bill Lawrence, Torrian Gray, and Jared Backus, Strength Coach Jim St. Pierre, Eq. Mgr. Steve Jones, and Mgr. Bennet Fellows.

WALTER "PETE" CRANE

Maine athletes, especially those in football and baseball, had a strong degree of affection for the late Walter "Pete" Crane. He was in charge of outdoor facility maintenance during the good weather months and worked in the equipment room during the winter season. He was a warm-hearted individual who loved Maine athletics as much as life itself. In 1966 he received the prestigious Black Bear award from the University Alumni Association.

1974 MAINE STAFF

MAINE STATE SERIES

Football competition in the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association, better known as the Maine State Series, began in the fall of 1895. It was one of the first intercollegiate football conferences in the country. Members were Bates, Bowdoin, and Colby Colleges and the University of Maine. League play continued annually, with the exceptions of the 1918, 1943, 1944, and 1945 seasons, until the conclusion of the 1964 season when the conference disbanded.

Beginning in 1940, the championship team received the Edward P. Barrows Trophy, presented to the league by the late Lewis O. Barrows, governor of Maine. In 1944, the trophy was dedicated to the memory of Gov. Barrows' son, the late Edward P. Barrows, U.S. Army captain and captain of Maine's 1941 team. Capt. Barrows was killed in action on August 3, 1944, at St. Lo, France while in combat against the German Army. Capt. Barrows was a standout athlete at Maine, earning all-conference honors and regarded as one of the finest players in Maine State Series history. Prior to his death he received the Bronze Star, Silver Star, and Purple Heart while leading Company E, Ninth Infantry, Second Division.

ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS

The earliest all-conference team uncovered was selected in 1924. An all-conference team could not be located for the 1929 and 1964 seasons. It should be noted that selections in some seasons were based only on games played among the four State Series teams, while in others, on all games played. In most seasons, until the conference dissolved in 1964, the four head coaches selected the all-conference team. In other seasons, those listed were all-conference players selected by the state's daily newspapers, primarily the Bangor Daily News and the Portland Sunday Telegram.

WESTY

Many men and women have served as head coaches and in leadership roles in UM athletics over the years and it is not an overstatement to say that one who had a most significant impact on the sports programs is Harold "Westy" Westerman. He was a member of the UM staff from 1949 to 1982, serving two years as an assistant coach before becoming one of the top head coaches in Yankee Conference football history. In 16 seasons, his teams had 15 winning records. They won 60 percent of their YC games, including four championships. He hired some of the most knowledgeable assistants in UM history, including Harold "Tubby" Raymond, Bob Hollway (later a head coach in the NFL), Walt Abbott, Dave Rand, Lew Clark, Woody Carville, Russ DeVette, Walt Anderson, and Jack and Jim Butterfield. Many of his football players went on to successful careers in business, the professions, and education, including several who became outstanding high school and college football coaches. After football, he served as Athletic Director for 16 years (most in UM history) and was behind the addition of many facilities and areas, including Alford Arena, Mahaney Diamond, a permanent floor in the fieldhouse, the Black Bear statute in front of Memorial Gym, a new tennis facility, Wallace Pool, additional offices and utility rooms in Memorial Gym, four acres of additional football practice fields and the adjoining men's and women's soccer field, and expanded locker, training, and equipment rooms. And best of all, he was a kindly and caring man who knew the true meaning of sportsmanship. Truly a man for the ages!

YANKEE CONFERENCE / ATLANTIC TEN

The Yankee Conference, re-named the Atlantic Ten in 1998, was established in 1947. Charter members were the Universities of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. Boston U. joined in 1973. The U. of Vermont dropped football after the 1974 season.

The Universities of Delaware and Richmond became members in 1986. Villanova U. became a member in 1988. The College of William and Mary and James Madison and Northeastern Universities became members in 1993. Boston U. dropped football after the 1998 season. The U. of Connecticut resigned following the 1999 season. Hofstra U. became a member in 2001. Towson U. joined in 2004.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Men and women who were members of Maine teams in all sports for many years will recognize these four loyal members of the UM athletic staff. Left to right, Asst. Eq. Mgrs. Earl Wolf and Steve Jones, Head Grounds Manager Jim Dunphy, and Head Eq. Mgr. George Wood. Jones, upon Wood's retirement, was promoted to succeed his former boss and remains in that capacity today..

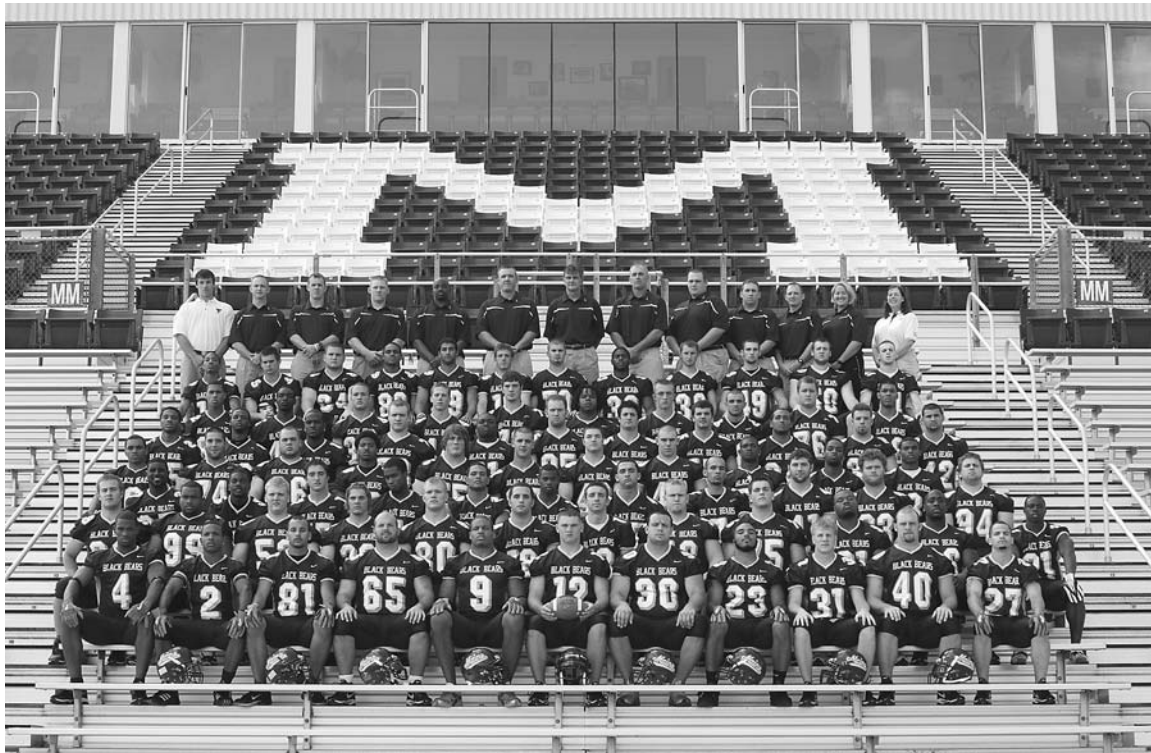

ALL-AMERICANS

A number of Maine players have been named to All-America teams over the years. Source of selections has varied; in some years, they were selected by prominent national newspapers (USA Today), wire services (AP, UPI), or other media organizations; and in other years by coaches' associations. All-American teams in Division 1AA have been selected since the late 1970s. Players selected earlier were included among players of all teams in NCAA football. It is hoped that the following listing is complete.

Peter Borjestdt (1987)
Lennard Byrd (2001)

2006 BLACK BEARS

The 2006 season was one of Maine's best, but most frustrating in many years. The Bears finished with a 6-5 record with missed field goals in the final minute separating the team from an 8-3 record. The team, third in the Yankee Conference, was led by one of the nation's best defensive players, Matt King, who finished sixth in the national Buchanan Award voting. The Award goes to the nation's top defensive player. He was named first team, 1AA All-American, all-New England, and all-YC. Also first team all-NE and all-YC was Manauris Arias and Mike DeVito was first team, all-YC. Daren Stone became the first UM player to be selected to play in the Hula Bowl in Hawaii. 1987 UMAINE STAFF

Coach Tim Murphy and his capable staff engineered the 1987 Black Bear team to an 8-4 record, a Yankee Conference championship, and the first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance by a Maine football squad. Left to right, Asst. Coaches John Lovett, Mark Heidebrecht, and Jack Cosgrove, Murphy, and Asst. Coaches Bob Potts, Steve Lufkin, and Bill Sheridan. Murphy was Maine's head coach for 1987 and 1988 before leaving to become head coach at Cincinnati. For the past several years, he has been head coach at Harvard. Maine teams posted a 15-8 record during his two seasons at the helm.

SHARING A SPECIAL MOMENT

Lorenzo Bouier was one of the finest backs in UM history. He still holds records for most yards rushing in one game (302), highest career rushing average per game (106.3), total yards by rushing and pass receiving in one game (319), and is tied with Carl Smith for the most 100 yard rushing games in one season (9). In 1980 he was named ECAC Division IAA Player of the Year and in 1982 received the 1AA Exemplary Player of the Year from the New York Touchdown Club. Here, with his proud athletic director, Hal Westerman, he displays his 1980 award from the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

1989 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Maine, for the second time in three seasons, were selected for the NCAA Tournament after posting a 9-3 record and winning the Yankee Conference title. It was Coach Tom Lichtenberg's only season in Orono. He had a stellar cast, led by Mike Buck's 19 touchdown passes and 2,315 passing yardage; Carl Smith's 1,680 yards rushing, and 50 catches by Mark Dupree and 49 by Steve Roth. Buck, Smith, Mike Bitterman, Scott Hough, Claude Pettaway and Justin Strelczyk were first team, all-YC selections. A GIFT TO WESTY

Hal Westerman, who served Maine athletics from 1949 to 1982, received from UM President Paul Silverman a beautiful drawing of himself in a familiar pose upon his retirement. Westy was Maine's football boss from 1951 to 1966 and director of athletics from 1965 to 1982.

MAINE'S STAFF IN 1985

Buddy Teevens, center, served as Maine's head coach in 1985 and 1986 before leaving to become head coach at Tulane. Now at Dartmouth, Teevens' teams had a record of 13-9 during his two years as UM head coach. Members of the 1985 staff were, left to right, Asst. Coaches John Lovett, Mike Hutchins, Brud Bicknell, Teevens, and Asst. Coaches Tim Murphy, Steve Robichaud, and Tim Fitzgerald.

1963 — A GOOD SEASON

Coach Hal Westerman's 1963 team enjoyed a good season, posting a 5-3 record that included another Maine State Series title and 28-8 and 35-12 wins over New Hampshire and Connecticut, respectively. Mike Haley, Roger Boucher, Ray Sawyer, Ernie Smith and Phil Soule were named all-Maine. Sophomore Dick DeVarney, in his first varsity season, threw for 690 yards, including 16 vs. UMass. Roger Boucher was perfect in kicking extra points, 24 in a row, and finished his UM career with 48, a new UM record. Front row, l-r, Mike Haley, Carl Merrill, Roger Boucher, Bill Perkins, Don Derrah, Dave Joseph, Brent Keene, Ray Austin, Don Soler, and Bob Dumas. Second row, l-r, Rod Durgin, Ned Sherry, Dick Flaherty, Dave Brown, Ernie Smith, Phil Soule, Co-Capts. Earle Cooper and Dan Severson, Dave Crabtree, Ray Sawyer, Reggie Clark, Charlie Harlow, and Ron Lanza. Third row, l-r, Dick Nolan, John Hutchins, Leon Worthley, Earl Chamberlain, Pat Reidman, Walter Hirst, Don Harnum, Dave Lahait, John McGonagle, Jack Brown, Bill Riviere, Vern Walker, Leon Harriman, Bob Hurd, Floyd Horn, C. Harney. Fourth row, l-r, Bob Kocsmiersky, Dick DeVarney, Doug Avery, John Fahlgren, Ron Rogerson, Paul Smith, Tom Trafton, Alan Riley, John Libby, Bob Rush, Ernie Thayer, Frank Tenore, Ed Fairfield, Tom London, and Steve Parent.

1961 — UNDEFEATED YANKEE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

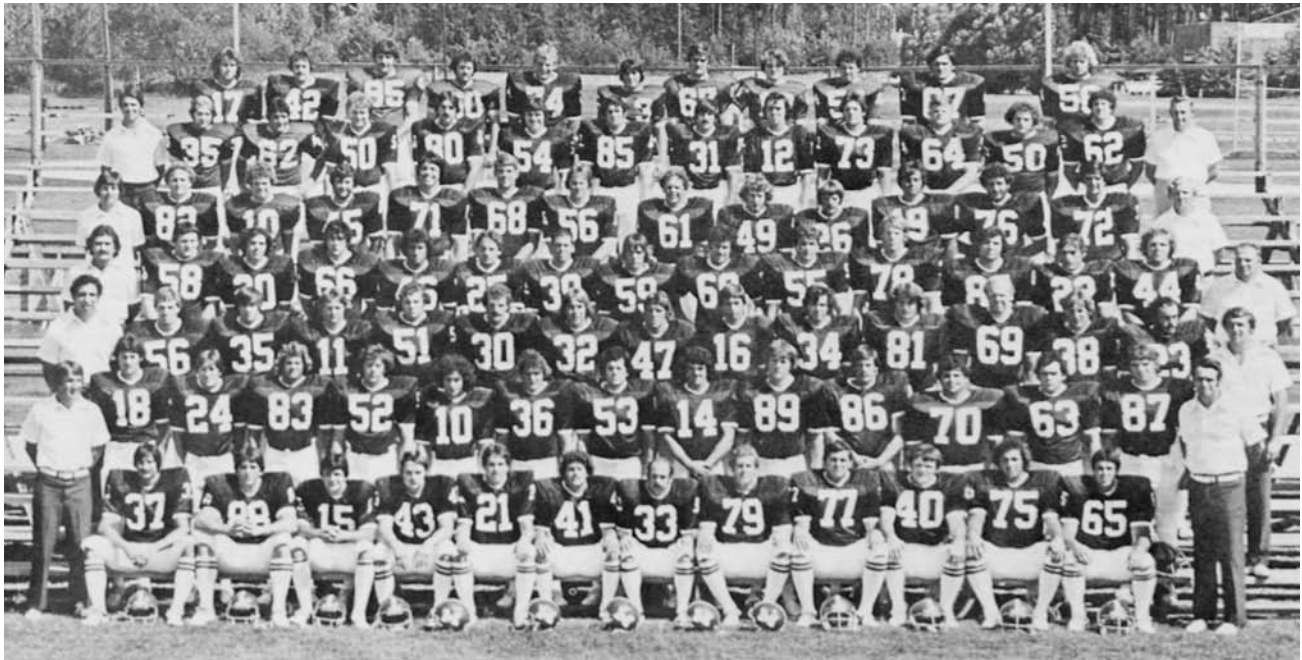

Maine's 1961 team was one of the best in UM history. Coach Hal Westerman's Black Bears posted eight wins and a tie, won the Yankee Conference championship without a loss and received the Lambert Cup, given to the best Division IAA team in the East. Front row, l-r, Henry Richards, Bob Laberge, Alton "Bump" Hadley, Tom Patrick, Frank Tarazewich, Roger Boucher, Tom Brown, Co-Capts. Dick Kinney and Dave Cloutier, Ed Kiley, Walt Beaulieu, Dave Lippard, Ray Caldwell, Ted Rose, and John Dudley. Second row, l-r, Phil Jones, Ed Reidman, Don Derrah, Bob MacLeod, Dale Curry, Dave Crabtree, Keith Willard, Manch Wheeler, Harry Simmons, Joel Densmore, Tom Paiement, Ray Sawyer, James Van Valkenberg, and Earle "Pete" Cooper. Third row, l-r, Phil Soule, Bill Brown, Wes Jordan, Norris Nickerson, Bill Chard, Ed Rancourt, Bob Tyler, Dave Brown, Tom Austin, Brian Smalley, Scott Robinson, Pierre Labat, and Jim Rudbeck. Back row, l-r, John Roberts, Pat Reidman, Jack Brown, Leon Worthly, Roger Sawyer, Pete Stanzilis, Dale Hanson, Art Mosher, Jim Houle, Don Harnum, and Leon Harriman.

JEFF COLE

Jeff Cole, a popular member of the Maine coaching staff, succumbed to cancer during the 2004 season. He was highly regarded by the players, his fellow coaches, and all who knew him. Jeff was an inspirational mentor, a knowledgeable football man, and role model for the young men who wore the Maine uniform. A large photograph of Jeff is on the wall at the entry to the football office, bearing an expression he often gave to his players: "Make sure you give more than you get."

1976 BLACK BEARS

The 1976 season saw a new head coach at the helm in Jack Bicknell. It was the first of five seasons in Orono for the popular leader and perhaps his most successful team with six victories and a third place finish in the Yankee Conference. Tri-Capt. Scott Shulman and Jack Leggett were first team, all-YC. It was the third time for Leggett, a singular accomplishment in the history of UM football in the conference. Quarterback Jack Cosgrove had 70 pass completions, while Rudy DiPietro rushed for 943 yards. Front row, l-r, Asst. Coach Ed Reese, Rudy DiPietro, Tri. Capt. Scott Shulman, Jack Cosgrove, Jim Dumont, Tri-Capt. Jack Leggett, Jeff Smaha, Mark DeGregorio, Steve Trenholm, John Joly, John Wardwell, Andy Soldati, Tri-Capt. Gerry Tautkus, and Coach Jack Bicknell. Second row, l-r, Tony Trafton, Jeff Wood, Ken Norton, Kevin Czech, Bill Modeen, John Barron, Mike Cosgrove, Chris Keating, Jay Kelly, Dave Secino, Ed Bouley, and Rudy Rawcliff. Third row, l-r, Asst. Coach Gerry DiNardo, Steve Giordano, Bob LaBerge, Peter Weiler, Mike Wesko, Al Marquis, Dave Harrison, Tom Warren, Jeff Winters, Dick McCormick, Mike Hodgson, Paul Sundquist, Peter Cook, Mike Rzoberts, and Asst. Coach Paul Boudreau.

Fourth row, l-r, Asst. Coach Orfio Collilouri, Chris Aceto, Bob Carmichael, Bill Kelly, Steve Scontras, Jeff Reinebold, Mike Gerber, John Gezzer, Randy Olson, Bill LeRoy, Steve Rockhill, Chris Paul, Dick Ciesluk, Dave Higgins, and Asst. Coach Carl Merrill. Fifth row, l-r, Grad. Asst. Ron Santavicca, Chris Mesri, Richie Pullen, Rick Camire, Rick Leonard, Matt Holway, Mark Godfrey, John Ackerly, Steve Lonngren, Rich Flanders, Steve Salter, Richard Reed, John King, and Trainer Phil Mateja. Sixth row, l-r, Mgr. Greg Speed, Ricky McHale, John Drapaniotis, Mark Richardson, Bob Murphy, Jim Hussey, Bob Linkletter, Jim Hood, Dennis Emerson, Paul Desmarais, Jon Weed, and Bob Terrizzi. Seventh row, l-r, Jed Palmacci, Stan LaPointe, Rich Roaf, Bill McCauley, Joe Lipinski, Francis Connerty, Wade Hughes, Craig Wayman, Don O'Shea, Lou Pelosi, and Jerry Danowski. (Brunswick Campus)

Due to a shortage of dorm space immediately following the end of World War II, most freshmen were housed in temporary quarters in Brunswick. The campus was popularly known as the Brunswick Annex. A freshman football team program was sponsored at the Annex during the 1946, 1947, and 1948 seasons.
