NEW WINE IN OLD WINESKINS EDITED BY JAMES ABBINGTON

A CONTEMPORARY CONGREGATIONAL SONG SUPPLEMENT

The Gospels tell us that no one should put new wine into old win skins lest they burst. Well, we've put a new twist on this familiar Scripture passage. The title for this collection, New Wine in Old Wineskins, reflects the marriage of new hymn texts by modern writers to time-honored hymn tunes from many different traditions. Familiar "old wineskins" like DUKE STREET, OLD HUNDREDTH, BEECHER, HYFRYDOL, HYMN TO JOY, and ABBOT'S LEIGH are filled with "new wine" by such illustrious text writers as Brian Wren; Carl P. Daw, Jr.; Sylvia Dunstan; Ruth Duck; Herman Stuempfle, Jr.; Jane Parker Huber; Fred Kaan; Mary Louise Bringle; Shirley Erena Murray; and John Bell.

This book has a fine selection of lesser-known tunes by the likes of Margaret Pleasant Douroux and Charles A. Tindley.

READINGS IN AFRICAN AMERICAN CHURCH MUSIC AND WORSHIP

Compiled and Edited by James Abbingtion

Readings in African American Church Music and Worship brings together, into one major volume, forty chapters, essays, articles, and previously unpublished papers written during the twentieth century on music and worship in the African American church.

The readings represent some of the greatest writings on the topic of music in the African American church, from the thoughts of W.E.B. DuBois in 1903 to those of Obery M. Hendricks, Jr., on the state of gospel music in 2000.

WAITING TO GO! (ADVENT-PENTECOST) & GOING TO WAIT! (PENTECOST-ADVENT)

LINDA HOLLIES AND JAMES ABBINGTON

Dr. James Abbotton and the late Rev. Dr. Linda H. Hollies have created an indispensable guide to Sunday worship preparation from Advent through Pentecost. Calling congregations to celebrate the cycle of the Christian year and follow the suggested Scripture readings of the Revised Common Lectionary. For each Sunday and other holy days, Scripture references are given along with suggested altar and banner colors, prayers, a short focus essay with sermon ideas, suggestions for visual art, and more. Based on seven major African American worship hymnals, suggestions of appropriate hymns, as well as anthems, spirituals, gospel songs, and organ music are given for each service. Sure to complement the traditions of all types of congregations.

SPIRITS THAT DWELL IN DEEP WOODS WYATT TEE WALKER

Twenty years after the Emancipation, the children of slaves found themselves living in the reality of separateness, and their religious practice turned increasingly inward. A unique body of hymnody grew out of that period, approximately 1885—1925. These are songs of Southern origin and rural people. These songs are different from spirituals and meter hymns yet show the latter's influence. Originally published in three volumes, they have been edited and combined by James Abbotton into one clothbound edition. Also available is a CD recording of all of the music discussed in the book and a music edition.

Among these titles you will find: Oh, What He's Done for Me • In Christ There Is No East or West • Thank You, Jesus • I See a Crimson Stream • The Lily of the Valley • Wash, O God, Our Sons and Daughters • The Gift of Love • Jesus Is Here Right Now • Be Still, God Will Fight Your Battles • He's Sweet, I Know • Bridegroom and Bride • Welcome to My Father's House

49 HIDDEN TREASURES
 FROM THE AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE HYMNAL

With the publication of the African American Heritage Hymnal in 2001, churches everywhere have been singing the praises of God using this invaluable resource. However, human nature tends toward the familiar; although the hymnal is resplendent with timeless gems, there are also hymns, old and new, which are not regularly used in many African American churches today. This compilation of 49 hymns, as well as the second volume of 46, will expose your choir and congregation to a new world of hidden treasures.

Some of the titles included: When, in Our Music, God Is Glorified • The Strife Is O'er • There's a Bright Side Somewhere • Thuma Mina • Amen Siakudumisa • A Stable Lamp Is Lighted • Heaven's Christmas Tree • I Know It Was the Blood • Spirit Song • Koinonia • He Knows Just What I Need • Lord, Keep Me Day by Day • Remember Me • Where Shall I Be?

LITANIES

54. REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.

In every era, God has chosen men and women to serve the needs of his people. Such a servant was Martin Luther King, Jr., whose birth we celebrate. We are deeply thankful for the life of this twentieth century prophet.

May the wisdom and words of Martin Luther King rekindle our faith.

May the deep love that Dr. King had for all people be released in us, that we too might work miracles in the lives of those who continue to hate.

Dr. King taught that only love can overcome hatred, bitterness and fear.

May his struggle for social transformation continue in this generation. May all people come to believe that with perseverance, "We Shall Overcome".

"But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an overflowing stream." (Am. 5:24)

May the work of Dr. King continue to eradicate racial injustice and its ungodly consequences.

Dr. King pursued his dream for racial equality by appealing to the conscience of his enemies.

May we continue to cultivate the nonviolent discipline of Dr. King, abandoning unrestrained acts of force.

He taught us that a heart full of grace and love is just as important as an education.

May the spirit of Dr. King continue to flow through our daily living.

He believed in self-respect and dignity, even though he knew that there would be difficult days ahead.

May we have the courage of Dr. King as we continue to stand up for justice, reconciliation and truth, despite challenge and controversy.

Dr. King said that war is never a victory, regardless of the outcome.

May the peace of the risen Christ cause the fury of war to vanish from the face of the earth.

Dr. King went to the mountain top; he saw the Promised Land; and he reassured us that we will get there one day. God of Glory, be with us on the journey.

52 BIBLICAL RESPONSIVE READINGS FROM THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

11. FAMILY

RESPONSIVE READINGS

Old Testament: Deut. 6:4-7; Prov. 22:12-13, 15, 22-6; Isa. 54:4-8

New Testament: Mt. 7:31-35; Lk. 11:13-15; Jn. 19:26-27; Col. 3:14-15, 18-21

Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart.

Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.

Apply your mind to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge. Do not withhold discipline from your children.

My child, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad.

Train children in the right way, and when old, they will not stray.

Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; do not be discouraged, for you will not suffer disgrace;

For you will forget the shame of your youth, and the disgrace of your widowhood you will remember no more.

For your Maker is your husband, the LORD of hosts is his name; the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer, the God of the whole earth he is called.

For the LORD has called you like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, like the wife of a man's youth when he is cast off, says your God.

For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

In overflowing wrath for a moment I hid my face from you, but with everlasting love I will have compassion on you, says the LORD, your Redeemer.

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you."

And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion?

If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother, "Woman, here is your son."

Then he said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful.

Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly.

Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is your acceptable duty in the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart.
