Home schooling – What is available on TV (BBC)

The BBC Bitesize website will be expanded to cater for home learning, while special programmes will also be broadcast on BBC iPlayer and BBC Red Button.

BBC Bitesize Daily Lessons

Launches on Monday 20th April

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/dailylessons>

From Bitesize Daily, parents and children will be directed online to BBC Bitesize for videos, quizzes, podcasts and worksheets on subjects such as Maths, English and Science, and other subjects such as history, geography and art. These shows are aimed at all children across the UK and split into age groups 5-7 years, 7-9 years, 9-11 years, 11-12, 12-13 years and 13-14 years. The website will also house guides offering help to parents about how to teach their child, advice for effective home schooling, and guides for pupils with SEN (Special Education Needs).

BBC iPlayer

BBC iPlayer will serve up specially curated content to showcase the very best curriculum-related videos and programmes. Organised by year group and subject, it will be easy for children to find and navigate further support for their learning.

BBC Sounds

Two brand new daily education podcasts will be available on BBC Sounds aimed at parents of primary and secondary pupils. Each episode will last around ten minutes and will be a guide to help families home schooling find content on the BBC that supports their education and wellbeing.

BBC Four

BBC Four will devote a block of programming each weekday evening to shows that support GCSE and A-Level curriculums. The channel will bring back premium factual programmes presented by some of Britain's most authoritative voices on Science and History.

Bitesize's social media

Bitesize's social media will look a little different for a while. Its Facebook and Twitter accounts will now focus on parents, where information including study schedules will be shared. Teenage students can still enjoy its Instagram platform, where flashcards, subject guides, memes and some lighter relief in the form of advice and encouragement from well-known faces will be readily available.

The interface also shows a storage bar indicating "10.2 GB of 15 GB used" and a "Buy storage" link.

The screenshot shows the National Online Safety (NOS) website. The header includes the NOS logo and navigation links: "Browse all", "Courses", "Lesson Plans", "Guides", "Webinars", "NEW! Essential CPD", "Certified School Programme", and a "Book a Demonstration" button.

The main content area features a large banner for "10 Top Tips: Remote Learning for Parents". Below the banner is a green button that says "CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD". To the right of the banner is an image of a tablet displaying the guide's content.

At the bottom of the page, there is a section titled "About The Guide" with the text "10 Top Tips: Remote Learning for Parents" and a large "Free" badge. A "Help" button is also visible in the bottom right corner.
