

Individual Deceased Personnel File (IDPF)

Bryan K. McGraw

This presentation will highlight the Air Force and Navy mortuary/ casualty files maintained by the National Archives at St. Louis, detailing the IDPFs which are available to the public. The lecturer will also include an overview of the information and documents typically found in these files.

Procedures will also be explained for how to access these records for both onsite and off-site researchers.

2014 VIRTUAL GENEALOGY FAIR

Bryan K. McGraw

Access Coordinator & Director National Archives at St. Louis Bryan McGraw joined the National Archives and Records Administration in September 2004 and was selected to his current position in 2012. Mr. McGraw is responsible for the day-to-day operations of one of the largest archives in the United States, employing over 40 personnel with responsibility for the legal custody of nearly 600,000 cubic feet of former military and civilian personnel records--an estimated 50 million files and growing. Mr. McGraw was also responsible for the local planning and oversight for the replacement of the National Personnel Records Center's (NPRC's) facilities in St. Louis, and the planning, execution and relocation of over 4.2 million cubic feet of records and nearly 800 employees to these new facilities.

Mr. McGraw's education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree from Southeast Missouri State University, a Master of Public Administration from the University of Oklahoma, and a Ph.D. (all but the dissertation) in Public Policy from Saint Louis University. He is also a Senior Fellow and graduate of the Partnership for Public Service Excellence in Government Fellowship Program.

What is an IDPF?

- An IDPF is a personnel file created by the military services to document the death of a military member & the related actions associated with the disposition of the remains
- Sometimes called:
 - "Mortuary File" or "Casualty File"
- The National Archives at St. Louis has legal custody of IDPFs of:
 - U.S. Air Force
 - U.S. Navy & Marine Corps
 - U.S. Army (pending not yet accessioned or relocated to St. Louis)
- Why are these permanent records?
 - Full of genealogical material & information
 - Very useful in family & academic research
 - Can contain surrogate material for military personnel records lost in the 1973 National Personnel Records Center Fire

Air Force IDPF Record Series Information

- Series Title:
 - US Air Force Individual Deceased Military File (IDPF)
 - ALIAS: Air Force Mortuary File
- Citation:
 - Records of U.S. Air Force Commands, Activities and Organizations, Record Group 342, National Archives at St. Louis
- OPA Identification: N/A
- Date Range: 1940-1973; 273 cubic feet
- Creating Agency & Provenance:
 - Department of Defense, Department of the Air Force, Major Commands, Installations (Wing or Group), Record Group 342.
 - From 1940 to 17 September 1947, records created were part of the U.S. Army, Record Group 319, as part of the Army Air Corps (July 1926 – 20 June 1941), or as part of the Army Air Forces (20 June 1941 – 18 September 1947). These records were accessioned into the larger Air Force IDPF group under RG 342 when the U.S. Air Force was established as a separate military service in 1947

Air Force IDPF Function & Use

- Air Force created a mortuary file or record on each individual uniformed service member killed while serving
 - Documents specifics of the death & the required actions to complete the case
 - Included both mortuary officer & summary courts martial officer actions:
 - Mortuary officer: duties associated with search & recovery, positive identification, preparation of remains for final disposition, arrangements for mortuary/final services, military honors & burial
 - Summary courts martial officer: duties associated with closing out personal affairs, collection & disposition of personal property, closing accounts, financial obligations, legal matters
- Can be used as surrogate material for Air Force military personnel records lost in 1973 National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) fire
 - Records affected by fire: Air Force personnel last name Hubbard Z discharged/retired/killed in service 1947-1963 (~ 75% lost)
- Excellent source for genealogical material
 - Date/place of birth, date of death, addresses, NOK, etc.

Air Force IDPF Scope & Content

- Contents of these records vary over time
 - 1940s: fairly small in size (dozens of pages)
 - Example: Kinne, John record : aircraft crash in Colorado 1943. Very small despite nature of search & recovery operations
 - 1960s & beyond: much larger files (many dozens of pages)
 - Example: Smith, Stephen record: killed in automobile accident in 1964. Very large record with significant amount of correspondence & forms

• Typical contents (vary):

- Official & unofficial correspondence, notification to Next-of-Kin (NOK), personal effects inventories, various Army forms (prior to 1948), death certificates, divorce decrees (as applicable), marriage & birth certificates (for proof of NOK), death notices, military orders, burial & honors arrangements & various Air Force & Defense Department Forms:
 - Air Force Form 9: Request for Purchase (mortuary services)
 - Air Force Form 592: Checklist for Deaths Occurring Inside the CONUS
 - Air Force Form 715: Preparation Room History (certificate of actions taken by mortician)
 - And many more...

Air Force IDPF Arrangement & Locating a Record

- Arrangement:
 - Each deceased member has a separate IDPF filed alphabetically by year of death (complete name)
- Locating a Record:
 - Researchers must provide at least name of person
 - Date of death is important (if known)
 - Parent Air Force Major Command (SAC, TAC, MAC, etc.) (if known)
 - Military base/installation (if known)
- Access Restrictions
 - Subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Privacy Exemption b(6)
 - 3rd Party Social Security Numbers & Addresses must be redacted prior to release (as applicable)

Escort Instructions - 1943

INSTRUCTIONS TO ATTENDANTS ACCOMPANYING REMAINS OF DECEASED MILITARY PERSONNEL FOR BURNAL

1. Ea ch attendant will read the following instructions and will acknowledge receipt of their understanding of these instructions by signature below:

The attendant will be at the mortuary designated by the Quartermaster one and one-half hours before train time.

The attendant will not release the Arry vehicle that takes him to the funeral home until an employee of the mortuary states that it will not be necessary to use the Army vehicle further and their limousine will be used to carry the attendant to the trein.

The attendant will be at the reilroad station with the remains one hour previous to departure of the train and have his transportation requests wit! him, or tickets in their stead.

The attendent will see that the remains are loaded into the baggage car and will see to it that the remains are placed in the baggage car of the new train if he has to change trains at any terminal.

The attendant will remain in the city of interment and attend the funeral, and see that the remains are properly interred.

Just before the casket is lowered into the grave he, the gr attendant, will take the flag thereform and, with the sid of another, preferably a comrade in arms, or an Army Veteran, fold the flag according to requirements and present it to the nearest of kin designated.

Attendant will corduct himself as a geptiemen, will not impost himself upon the family in any way, and accept their offers as to :- sleeping accommodations with gracious thanks, and will do all in his power to keep the high regard for the service that is prevalent in the minds of citizens, he being the only representative of the Army.

At all times upon his meeting the family he will speak highly of the deceased, if within his power to do so, or state frankly that he did not know the deceased, but that he understood he was highly thought of both in the organization to which he belonged and throughout the Post generally.

After interment, he will offer his sympathics to the family and thank them for their pleasantries and take his departure.

Upon his return to Lowry Field, he will report to the Chief Clerk in the Quartermaster's office the manner in which the whole case has been handled, so that corrections may be made for future burials if such are needed.

- Creating Agency & Provenance:
 - Department of Defense, Department of the Navy, Bureau of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, Bureau of Navigation, Record Group 024
 - Includes both Navy and Marine Corps personnel

Navy IDPF Function & Use

- Navy created a mortuary file or record on each individual uniformed service member killed while serving
 - Documents specifics of the death & actions to complete the case
 - Included traditional mortuary & summary courts martial officer duties
 - Search & recovery, positive identification, preparation of remains for final disposition, arrangements for mortuary/final services, military honors & burial, closing out personal affairs, collection & disposition of personal property, closing accounts, financial obligations, legal matters
- Complements military personnel record of deceased
 - Navy & Marine Corps records were NOT significantly affected by 1973 NPRC fire
- Excellent source for genealogical material
 - Date/place of birth, date of death, addresses, NOK, etc.

Navy IDPF Scope & Content

- Like the Air Force IDPFs, the contents of these records vary over time
 - 1940s: fairly small in size (dozens of pages)
 - Lack standardization, high volume of correspondence
 - 1960s & beyond: much larger files (many dozens of pages)
 - More standardized, more use of forms
 - •Typical contents (vary):
 - Official & unofficial correspondence, notification to Next-of-Kin (NOK), personal effects inventories, death certificates, divorce decrees (as applicable), marriage & birth certificates (for proof of NOK), death notices, military orders, burial & honors arrangements, official message traffic & common forms:
 - Aircraft Trouble Report (Form 339)
 - Report of Casualty (DD Form 1300)
 - Telegrams & Messages (DD Form 173)
 - Claim & Voucher for Death Gratuity Payment (DD Form 397)
 - And many more...

Navy IDPF Arrangement & Locating a Record

- Arrangement:
 - Each deceased member has a separate IDPF filed alphabetically by year of death (complete name)
- Locating a Record:
 - Researchers must provide at least name of person
 - Date of death is important (if known)
 - If known: military installation and branch of service (Navy or Marine Corps)
- Access Restrictions
 - Subject to FOIA, Privacy Exemption b(6)
 - 3rd Party Social Security Numbers & Addresses must be redacted prior to release (as applicable)

Correspondence with Next-of-Kin

Pers-G232-mf 549 66 73 28 April 1969

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Curry Routs #3 Memphis, Missouri 63555

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Curry:

Reference is made to the settlement of the affairs of your son, Patty Officer Larry Carl Curry, United States Navy.

The Commanding Officer, Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center, Bakersfield, California, has furnished this office certified copies of the Order appointing you guardians of the member's minor daughter, Donna Lynn Curry.

In view of the foregoing, the enclosed applications for survivor benefits payable by the Veterans and Social Security Administrations should be completed in behalf of Donna Lynn Curry. Also enclosed are two copies of the guardianship papers which should be attached to each claim when filing with the local Veterans and Social Security Offices.

The member's widow is the eligible beneficiary for the death gratuity, unpaid pay and allowances and Servicemen's Group Life Insurance. No action may be taken relative to settlement of these benefits until the condition of Denise Elsine Curry is warrantable.

By direction of the Chief of Naval Personnel.

Sincerely yours,

W. M. EVERETT Assistant Head Casualty Branch
