Introductory Message

"It is not enough to have a good mind. The main thing is to use it well."

- Rene Descartes

This module is designed in the current era where the country and the world have been affected by the COVID-19 crisis. Through this, young people can continue to study at home. This self-help module is of great help for young students to provide basic and profound knowledge on philosophy.

To avoid getting caught up in the call of globalization, it has to be early enough to study philosophy. The world is full of competition. By the end of Senior High School, students will have to master all the knowledge and skills in five skills: reading, speaking, listening, watching and writing. This module aims to develop the students' critical thinking, reasoning (both in writing and speaking) and problem-solving skills. With this, the students are equipped with an armor of knowledge enough to face a big battle in life. With the creation of this module, the students will consider meeting the requirements of the new curriculum. This is designed for tracks anchored in academic pursuits.

In addition to the material in the main text, you will also see this box in the body of the module:

Notes to the Teacher

This contains helpful tips or strategies that will help you in guiding the learners.

The tasks in the module are prepared to respond to the various tracks that are taken. The following tracks are academic, technical vocational, artistic, design and sports activities.

This module has the following parts:

 WHAT I NEED TO KNOW	This section of the module will keep you on track on the competencies and objectives expected for you to accomplish.

WHAT'S IN

ACTIVITY 1

Directions: Read the poem below.

Blind Men and the Elephant – A Poem by John Godfrey Saxe

Here is John Godfrey Saxe's (1816-1887) version of Blind Men and the Elephant:

*It was six men of Indostan,
To learning much inclined,
Who went to see the Elephant
(Though all of them were blind),
That each by observation
Might satisfy his mind.*

*The First approach'd the Elephant,
And happening to fall
Against his broad and sturdy side,
At once began to bawl:
"God bless me! but the Elephant
Is very like a wall!"*

*The Second, feeling of the tusk,
Cried, -"Ho! what have we here
So very round and smooth and sharp?
To me 'tis mighty clear,
This wonder of an Elephant
Is very like a spear!"*

*The Third approach'd the animal,
And happening to take
The squirming trunk within his hands,
Thus boldly up and spake:
"I see," -quoth he- "the Elephant
Is very like a snake!"*

*The Fourth reached out an eager hand,
And felt about the knee:
"What most this wondrous beast is like
Is mighty plain," -quoth he,-
"Tis clear enough the Elephant
Is very like a tree!"*

*The Fifth, who chanced to touch the ear,
Said- "E'en the blindest man
Can tell what this resembles most;
Deny the fact who can,
This marvel of an Elephant
Is very like a fan!"*

*The Sixth no sooner had begun
About the beast to grope,
Then, seizing on the swinging tail
That fell within his scope,
"I see," -quoth he,- "the Elephant
Is very like a rope!"*

*And so these men of Indostan
Disputed loud and long,
Each in his own opinion
Exceeding stiff and strong,
Though each was partly in the right,
And all were in the wrong!*

Directions: Answer the questions deliberately.

1. Enumerate all the partial point of views of the six blind men.
2. Give your own holistic perspective of an elephant.
3. What is the moral lesson of the poem?

WHAT'S NEW

Directions: Read the situation carefully and answer the given questions below thoroughly.

On a hot Monday, Alarick went to a nearby car shop to have his car checked. He was bothered by the unsteadiness of the steering wheel. Michael, the mechanic on duty, checked the suspension and bolted joint of the car. The suspension and bolted joint were okay because it was fastened very well. Michael then concluded that it was a problem of alignment of the wheels. He realigned the wheels and told Alarick to have a test drive. Alarick drove around the city to check if the problem of the unsteady steering wheel persisted. Indeed, the problem is not solved despite the realignment of the wheels. Alarick was very disappointed because he wasted P650.00 for an unsolved issue.

On the next day, Alarick decided to go immediately to Toyota, Talisay. Alarick told the mechanic named Gabriel about the realignment of the wheels but still the problem of the unsteady steering wheel persisted. Gabriel, with so much curiosity, checked the suspension and bolted joint of the car. He concluded the same thing as Michael. He also checked the alignment and it was okay. He examined all the possible parts of the engine, including the ATF (Automatic Transmission Fluid) and the gear box. In the end, he found out that the problem was in the power steering itself. He said that it was a difficult problem to see because the power steering was electronically programmed. It was not the usual “manual-thing” to do. Then, Gabriel checked the power steering status through the computer. Good enough, the problem was very evident. He immediately made some adjustments. It was done in less than an hour.

Alarick paid all the charges for the repair. When he drove back home, he was very happy because the problem of the steering wheel is no more.

Questions:

1. Where specifically in the situation is the partial point of view? Explain.
2. Where specifically in the situation is the holistic perspective? Explain.
3. What is the moral lesson of the given situation?

WHAT IS IT

What Is Philosophy?

The word philosophy means “love of wisdom”. Philosophy ignites an individual’s critical thinking and seek for things beyond the normal eye can perceive. Philosophy is the rational science of all things that seeks for the ultimate causes of reality.

Through philosophy, an individual can break walls and enter into a boundless possibility.

What is the difference between holistic thinking and partial thinking?

Holism comes from the Greek word “holos,” meaning literally everything, whole. Holistic perspective refers to a perspective that considers large-scale patterns in systems. This is often described as looking at the “big picture” when describing and analyzing a situation or problem. A holistic perspective requires an individual to have an open mindset and an ability to get the general sense or impression regarding a situation. Partial point of view, on the other hand, focuses on specific aspects of a situation. The partial point of view is an important component of analytical thinking, as an individual focuses on certain areas or aspects of a problem in order to understand it. Though partial point of view is useful, philosophy utilizes holistic perspective in making sense of problems and issues related to the human experience.

Holistic Perspective and Partial Point of View

Holistic Perspective	Partial Point of View
<ul style="list-style-type: none">► Looks at all aspects of the given problem or situation.► All aspects are given importance when making conclusions.► All aspects are tied in together to form a general overview of the problem or situation. Example: A teacher listens first to both stories of her two arguing students before making any conclusion about the issue.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">► Looks at only a limited number of aspects of the given problem or situation.► Conclusions are made based on considering some, but not all, sides of the problem or situation. Example: A teacher scolds Student A after Student B accused him of stealing her pencil case. However, the teacher only listened to the story of Student B, and not Student A, before deciding to scold the student.

Looking at the characteristics of holistic perspective and partial point of view, it can be concluded that using a holistic perspective is more desirable in doing philosophy than using a partial point of view. Partial point of view only promote limited knowledge on the situation. This leads to wrong conclusions.

WHAT'S MORE

Directions: Complete the following statements using a partial point of view approach and a holistic perspective approach.

Example 1

The movie entitled Batman: The Dark Knight is _____.

Partial Point of View Approach

The movie entitled Batman: The Dark Knight is very depressing because Bruce Wayne, the Batman, suffered a terrible defeat.

(This is a partial point of view approach because the statement is too one-sided, making a direct conclusion without even considering the good side of the movie.)

Holistic Perspective Approach

The movie entitled Batman: The Dark Knight is very nice because it conveys a very great philosophy about ethical principles and it portrays the reality of life (there is victory and defeat).

(This is a holistic perspective approach because the statement acknowledges both the good and bad side of the movie and considers it as a lesson in life.)

Example 2

Married life is _____ because _____.

Partial Point of View Approach

Married life is difficult because it restricts an individual's freedom and constant financial problems will arise.

(This is a partial point of view approach because the statement quickly jumps to a negative conclusion without considering the advantages of marriage.)

Holistic Perspective Approach

Married life is bittersweet because it is a journey filled with happiness and sadness; it is a partnership where a man shares joy, burden and responsibility with a woman.

(This is a holistic perspective approach because it accepts both the advantages and disadvantages of marriage.)

Example 3

Chilli sauce is _____.

Partial Point of View Approach

Chilli sauce is not palatable because it tastes very hot.

(This is a partial point of view approach because the statement is too one-sided.)

Holistic Perspective Approach

Chilli sauce is too spicy yet very tasty because it heightens the appetite of a person during a meal.

(This is a holistic perspective approach because the statement considers the pros and cons of a chilli sauce.)

WHAT I HAVE LEARNED

RIGHTEOUSNESS

Directions: A situation is presented to you and make your best course of action using holistic perspective.

1. Ned is a father of two little girls, Sansa and Arya. He is only a “trisikad” driver. Due to the Enhanced Community Quarantine (ECQ), his means of livelihood has been cut off. One day, Sansa and Arya asked him to buy two ice cream. Feeling intense pressure for the cravings of his daughters, he went quickly to the nearest convenient store which was 7Eleven with not a single penny inside his pocket. He walked around inside the convenient store. Then, he went to the fridge section. He got two small plastics of ice cream and hid them inside his pocket. He waited for the right moment. When the security guard moved away from his post, he rushed towards the door and slowly opened it. You happened to be outside and saw what he did. With holistic perspective, what will you do?

2. It was Friday. You and your sister decided to have a dinner at SM Seaside around 7:00PM. You worked at the Cebu City Hall as a secretary of the city mayor while your sister worked at the IT Park as a call center agent. In the afternoon, after you punched out, you immediately took a taxi on the way to SM Seaside. You arrived at 5:30PM inside the mall. Since you are too early at your appointed meeting time with your sister, you decided to do a little shopping. Your sister, on the other hand, punched out at 6:00PM. Then, without a second to waste, she took a taxi and headed directly to SM Seaside. However, there was a heavy traffic at Mango Avenue. Your sister got upset because of the traffic. It was already 7:00PM and your sister was still at B. Rodriguez Sreet. You were very hungry and started to lose your patience. At 7:53PM, your sister finally arrived at the mall. You met with each other at 8:06PM inside the Harbor City restaurant. What will you say and do to your sister?

3. Mariane is a nurse. She was told by the hospital management to report any suspicious employees who have symptoms of COVID-19. Her head nurse, named Rayneria, was her close friend for 8 years. Rayneria was known for her severe allergies. One day, on their shift together, Mariane noticed that Rayneria had a sore throat because of her hoarse voice. Mariane even saw her sneeze and cough secretly. Rayneria obviously seemed a little awkward to Mariane. What is Mariane's best course of action?

Ideas	This paper is clear and focused. It holds the reader's attention. Relevant details and quotes enrich the central theme.	This paper is mostly focused, and has some good details and quotes.	The writer is beginning to define the topic, even though development is still basic or general.	Topic is not well-defined and/or there are too many topics.	As yet, the paper has no clear sense of purpose or central theme. To extract meaning from the text, the reader must make inferences based on sketchy or missing details.
Organization	The organization enhances and showcases the central idea or theme. The order, structure of information is compelling and moves the reader through the text.	Paper (and paragraphs) are mostly organized, in order, and makes sense to the reader.	The organizational structure is strong enough to move the reader through the text without too much confusion.	Sentences within paragraphs make sense, but the order of paragraphs does not.	The writing lacks a clear sense of direction. Ideas, details, or events seem strung together in a loose or random fashion; there is no identifiable internal structure.
Sentence Fluency	The writing has an easy flow, rhythm, and cadence. Sentences are well built, with strong and varied structure that invites expressive oral reading.	The writing mostly flows, and usually invites oral reading.	The text hums along with a steady beat, but tends to be more businesslike than musical, more mechanical than fluid.	The text seems choppy and is not easy to read orally.	The reader has to practice quite a bit in order to give this paper a fair interpretive reading.
Conventions	The writer demonstrates a good grasp of standard writing conventions (e.g., spelling, punctuation, capitalization, grammar, usage, paragraphing) and uses conventions effectively to enhance readability.	The writer understands good writing conventions and usually uses them correctly. Paper is easily read and errors are rare; minor touch-ups would get this piece ready to publish.	The writer shows reasonable control over a limited range of standard writing conventions. Conventions are sometimes handled well and enhance readability; at other times, errors are distracting and impair readability.	The writer seems to have made little effort to use conventions: spelling, punctuation, capitalization, usage, grammar and/or paragraphing have multiple errors.	Errors in spelling, punctuation, capitalization, usage, and grammar and/or paragraphing repeatedly distract the reader and make the text difficult to read.
Presentation	The form and presentation of the text enhances the ability for the reader to understand and connect with the message. It is pleasing to the eye.	The format only has a few mistakes and is generally easy to read and pleasing to the eye.	The writer's message is understandable in this format.	The writer's message is only understandable occasionally, and paper is messily written.	The reader receives a garbled message due to problems relating to the presentation of the text, and is not typed.

WHAT I HAVE LEARNED

1. Ned is a father of two little girls, Sansa and Arya. He is only a "trisikad" driver. Due to the Enhanced Community Quarantine (ECQ), his means of livelihood has been cut off. One day, Sansa and Arya asked him to buy two ice cream. Feeling intense pressure for the cravings of his daughters, he went quickly to the nearest convenient store which was 7 Eleven with not a single penny inside his pocket. He walked around inside the convenient store. Then, he went to the fridge section. He got two small plastics of ice cream and hid them inside his pocket. He waited for the right moment. When the security guard moved away from his post, he rushed towards the door and slowly opened it. You happened to be outside and saw what he did. With holistic thinking, what will you do?

2. It was Friday. You and your sister decided to have a dinner at SM Seaside around 7:00PM. You worked at the Cebu City Hall as a secretary of the city mayor while your sister worked at the IT Park as a call center agent. In the afternoon, after you punched out, you immediately took a taxi on the way to SM Seaside. You arrived at 5:30PM inside the mall. Since you are too early at your appointed meeting time with your sister, you decided to do a little shopping. Your sister, on the other hand, punched out at 6:00PM. Then, without a second to waste, she took a taxi and headed directly to SM Seaside. However, there was a heavy traffic at Mango Avenue. Your sister got upset because of the traffic. It was already 7:00PM and your sister was still at B. Rodriguez Street. You were very hungry and started to lose your patience. At 7:53PM, your sister finally arrived at the mall. You met with each other at 8:06PM inside the Harbor City restaurant. What will you say and do to your sister?
