Listening, Part 1

You will hear two conversations. For each conversation there are three tasks.

Decide if the two statements are true or false and decide which answer fits best: a, b or c.
You will hear each conversation once.

Mark your answers for items 1–6 on the answer sheet.

First you will have 30 seconds to read the items.

- 1 This is a conversation between a student and the university's accommodation officer.
true/false

- 2 The woman is concerned about the state of the account.
true/false

- 3 The man tells the woman that he
 - a has received a letter from the student loan company.
 - b has taken up new accommodation.
 - c is expecting a cheque for four hundred pounds.

- 4 The two speakers don't know each other that well.
true/false

- 5 The speakers disagree about when to arrive.
true/false

- 6 The two people
 - a are from the Agricultural College.
 - b need to buy wine for the party.
 - c went to an event together last week.

Marking Criteria for Writing

The candidate's performance in the Writing subtest is assessed according to four criteria. Content and Text Structure is primarily related to the content and structure of the text, whereas Communicative Design, Accuracy and Vocabulary are related to the language used by the writer. These criteria are based on what can be expected of a learner at the relevant level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Examination Preparation

MOCK EXAMINATION 2

ENGLISH B2·C1 UNIVERSITY

telc – language tests have a long tradition of specialisation in the field of English language testing and certification around the world. The examination telc English B2·C1 University is a dual-level format that measures language competence across two levels of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Test takers thereby have the opportunity to gain certification at a level that precisely reflects their language abilities.

An essential characteristic of standardised language examinations is that the participants know what is expected of them during the test. The mock examination informs the test taker about the test format and tasks, times and assessment criteria, as well as the procedures involved in the exam implementation. It can be used for practice purposes, general information and examination preparation.
