welcome

From Pastor David & Rev. Valerie Cousin

Rev. Valerie and I are so pleased that you made a decision to choose Bridge Street AME Church as your new church home. Deciding where you will spend time in worship and fellowship is not a decision to be taken lightly because your church home is the place where you will create and foster lasting relationships, grow deeper in your faith, and share your life experiences including your joys, triumphs and challenges. Your church home is the place where you will be celebrated when you achieve accomplishments in your personal life and career, and it is the place where you will be encouraged and sustained when you go through trials in your life such as the death of a loved one, loss of job or health challenges.

In order for your church family to share in your life and help you to grow in your faith, we will need you to remain connected to your church family through your class leader. Every member at Bridge Street is assigned to a class of twelve to twenty people that is headed by a class leader. Your class leader is the person who will need to report any challenges or concerns you may have about your faith, becoming involved in church ministries, challenges with your health, or requests for prayer or visitation when you are hospitalized or have experienced death in the family. If you have not received your class assignment, please contact the church office at (718) 452-3936 or via email at bridgestreetchurch@gmail.com and a leader will be assigned to you.

One of the biggest decisions in life, other than buying a home or choosing a mate, is selecting a church home where you can live out your Christian faith while working through life issues.

The next step in this process is for you to complete New Member Class, which is held on Sundays at 9:00a.m. in Room 1, located on the lower level of the church. Rev. Charles Griffin is the instructor. He can be reached via email at cgrif4real@aol.com. If you have not been baptized and desire the sacrament of baptism, please contact the church office to obtain a registration packet. Baptism classes are held on the first Wednesday of each month.

Just as you have expectations of your church family to help you to grow in your faith as well as encourage and support you in your life endeavors, God expects for every believer of every church to financially support the church by tithing a minimum of 10% of their income so that the work of the church (ministering to the homeless and incarcerated in our community) might be sustained to let others know that God does, in fact, care about them. By now, you should have received your giving envelopes with an envelope number. If you have not received that information, please contact the church office.

Again, Welcome to Bridge Street AME Church, and we pray that you will become a well connected, spiritually discerning, generous giving member of God's great community of believers!

The Class leader Ministry

What are class leaders? A class leader is a person assigned to oversee a group of twelve or more members to discern their spiritual and physical well-being.

Why do I need a class leader? Class leaders are the pastoral arm of the Church. It is very difficult for pastors to know the whereabouts and well-being of all of their members at any given time, which is why the class leader ministry is so vital to the effective functioning of the church.

How can I find out who my class leader is? If you don't know your class number or class leader's name, you should contact the church office at (718) 452-3936 or via email at info@bridgestreetbrooklyn.org.

When should I contact my class leader?

You should contact your Class Leader when you are:

- Sick
- In the Hospital
- Going through challenging times
- In need of prayer or communion

You should contact your Class Leader if you are:

- Having trouble working through faith issues or church doctrine
- In need of spiritual direction
- Interested in learning more about the various ministries of your church
- Planning to join a new church

You should contact our Class Leader if you have:

- Missed attending class meeting
- Not been in church for at least two Sundays
- Questions about the sermon, church programs or activities
- Relocated to another geographical region
- Changed your address or telephone number
- Joined another church

You should contact your Class Leader if you want to:

- Become more involved in the spiritual life of the Church
- Join a ministry, auxiliary or choir
- Report the birth of a child
- Report a death in the family

Thought to Remember.....

If every member of my Church was just like me, what kind of Church would My Church be?

Your Bridge Street Church family would like to ensure that you remain connected to the people you have made a decision to unite with as a believer in God’s kingdom. We can’t keep you connected unless you have completed a New Member form and provided us with your personal information such as your mailing and email addresses as well as your home, cell and/or work phone numbers.

Email and Electronic Newsletter

As a member, you will receive information from us in a variety of formats and media. Although 20% of our members prefer receiving communication about church activities and events via email or the weekly e-newsletter, approximately 80% of our members still prefer the telephone and snail mail (post office) as their preferred means of communication. If you would like to receive information via our weekly e-newsletter, please email the church office to request that your email address be added to the list or you may log on to our facebook page or website and sign up from the enewsletter.

We do not share members’ personal information with organizations that are affiliated with Bridge Street Church, nor do we share your information with other members unless they are your class leader or work with the class leader ministry and are functioning in an official capacity to make contact you.

Church Bulletin

Our church bulletin will contain select information about event dates, ill and homebound members and upcoming ministry meetings. However, we have made a conscious effort to go green as a means of exercising good stewardship over the environment and have thus cut down on the size of the bulletin to reduce the amount of paper consumed on a weekly basis.

Digital Signage

Bridge Street has installed a digital monitor in the foyer of the church to inform members of upcoming events occurring at our church. We pray that you will make a concerted effort to view the events displayed on the monitor so that you might remain well informed of the events occurring at your church.

Social media

Bridge Street is blessed to have a big presence on social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. Please follow us to remain abreast of the events occurring at your church.

Worship | Christian Education | Fellowship | Outreach

Worship

Worship celebrates the divinity of God. It recognizes God for who He is, what He has done, and for what we are expecting God to do. God admonishes everything and everyone that has breath (Psalm 150) to praise Him. We honor God when we engage in praise and worship. We honor God when we praise Him with the fruit of our lips (Heb. 13:15); we can also honor God through our everyday tasks (Col. 3:23) such as esteeming those who are in authority over us (Heb. 13:17) or submitting to our spouse (Eph. 5:22-23) or by not provoking our children (Eph. 6:4). As you can see, worshipping God is not limited to singing songs on Sunday or lifting up holy hands in worship. Worshipping God is a lifestyle that requires believers to be constantly and continually connected to God through the Holy Spirit.

Christian Education

Engaging in a life that loves learning is not an option for the believer, but it is a requirement by God. 2 Timothy 2:15 records, “Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.” By embracing study of God’s word, believers are equipping themselves for not only sharing and spreading God’s word to persons in their circles of influence, but they are also preparing themselves as vessels of God’s future blessings. In other words, the more we study God’s word and come into a knowledge of what God expects from us, the more we tailor our lifestyle choices to align with God’s word. As a result, God will open up opportunities for us to serve him through our gifts that will bless and encourage others. Therefore, all members, especially new members, are expected to be involved in learning about God’s word so that they can draw others to God through their Christian witness. In order to know God in an intimate way, believers will have to study God’s word daily, attend Sunday School, bible study, and Sunday worship services.

Fellowship

Fellowship is a mutual sharing of our relationship with Christ with other believers. Hebrews 10:25 records, “not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” In order for believers to grow together as a fellowship, a concerted effort to spend time together in godly pursuits will have to be a priority of the leadership. Such fellowships might include small group study, men and women’s bible studies, seminars and workshops, and church outings. Our prayer is that you will make a concerted effort to be present at fellowship opportunities that will help to create lasting bonds with other believers in your new church family.

Outreach

Our outreach signals to the world that we are the arms, hands, feet, eyes and mouth of God. When we use our financial resources, spiritual gifts and natural abilities (talents) to address the needs of the disenfranchised in society, we are saying to them that God is not dead, God is alive, and he is using Christians (those who believe in Jesus and the message of the cross) to draw sinners to repentance, and to minister to the social, psychological, physical, spiritual and emotional wellness of people. Each member of Bridge Street is expected to join at least one ministry and to use their gifts to accomplish the mission of those ministries. Whether it is clothing and feeding the hungry on Wednesdays, visiting Rikers Island on Sundays, visiting the ill and homebound on Mondays, every member of Bridge Street is needed to fulfill God’s mission for the church.

our core values

As a family of believers, we...

- Ⓢ Believe that Jesus Christ is the way to salvation and personal relationship with God.
- Ⓢ Are faithful in attending weekly services to enrich our faith walk.
- Ⓢ Engage both traditional and non-traditional methods of teaching to reach those outside the family of faith.
- Ⓢ Encourage fellowship with one another as a means for displaying God's love.
- Ⓢ Build up believers through God's word.
- Ⓢ Empower believers for ministry through identification and discernment of their spiritual gifts.
- Ⓢ Glorify God through our individual and collective giving to make sure that there are sufficient financial resources to carry out the ministries of God's church.
- Ⓢ Equip believers with knowledge to spread the gospel through evangelism.
- Ⓢ Serve others affected by hunger, homelessness, disease and natural disasters on the local and national level.

Salvation

Salvation is a free gift of a Holy God to a sinful world. It is obtained only by believing in the Son of God, Jesus Christ, and receiving Him into your heart. It is an act of faith. One cannot work his way to Christ, nor can a person buy salvation. It is a personal decision. No one else can save a person. Church membership is not salvation but should be a natural result of salvation. Salvation changes the heart, the mind, and every part of a person. We become new creatures in Christ Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:17).

The “gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth” (Romans 1:16). It is the “good news” of Jesus paying the price for our sins on the cross – and that is the power of God. In order to save man from sin and torment, God had to sacrifice his only Son (John 3:16). We need not worry about being good enough to be saved, because a person never reaches that degree of excellence. If we could, we would have no need of salvation. Every person comes to saving grace in the same way “all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23).

Salvation crosses all denominational lines. No religious movement of the Christian faith can claim a monopoly on salvation. “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Romans 10:13) Simply stated, Christians are saved through faith in Jesus Christ. There are four basic steps in receiving salvation. They are Believe, Turn, Look, and Trust.

1. BELIEVE

Believe that God loves you, and that He gave His only Son Jesus Christ to die for your sins and the sins of the entire world and through His death you will receive eternal life. “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” John 3:16

2. TURN

Turn from your sin to God. Many have tried to escape the consequences of sin, but turning to God is the only way. The word repent is used to describe turning from sin. Christians must repent of their sin in order to receive forgiveness for them. “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” John 1:9; “And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.” Acts 2:38; “I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance.” Luke 5:32

3. LOOK

Look to Christ as the only provision for the forgiveness of your sin. Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the penalty for sin in full. He died to bring us back to God. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: “While we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8). Even though we were dead in our sins, God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love He had for us, gave us life together with Christ. Remember it is by grace and not by achievements that you have been saved. “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith – and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God” (Ephesians 2:5-9). Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man comes to the Father, but by Me” (John 14:6). God has provided the way, the only way, but man must respond to that provision.

4. TRUST

Trust in Jesus Christ. By faith receive Him as your personal Savior. The bible says... “Yet to all whom received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God” (John 1:12). We must openly confess our faith, and trust in Christ Jesus. “That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.” (Romans 10:9-10) Right now you can have this new life in Christ Jesus, by receiving Him as your personal Savior.

Our Beliefs

Bridge Street is a member of the Methodist family of Churches and as such we do not differ in any major way from what all Methodists believe. The two great historic documents, which are the basis of what we believe, are the Apostles' Creed and the Twenty-Five Articles of Religion.

The 10 Commandments

(New International Version of the Bible)

The 10 Commandments - God's Revelation in the Old Testament. The 10 Commandments are found in the Bible's Old Testament at Exodus, Chapter 20. They were given directly by God to the people of Israel at Mount Sinai after God had delivered them from slavery in Egypt.

"And God spoke all these words, saying: 'I am the LORD your God...

Commandments 1-4
relate to our "vertical"
relationship with God

- Commandment 1: You shall have no other gods before Me.
- Commandment 2: You shall not make for yourself a carved image--any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.
- Commandment 3: You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.
- Commandment 4: Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Commandments 5-10 relate to our "horizontal" relationship with one another

- Commandment 5: Honor your father and your mother.
- Commandment 6: You shall not murder.
- Commandment 7: You shall not commit adultery.
- Commandment 8: You shall not steal.
- Commandment 9: You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
- Commandment 10: You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbor's.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in GOD the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried. The third day He arose from the dead, He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of GOD the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Church Universal, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.

The Apostles' Creed can be divided into (10) succinct areas of belief:

- 1: Belief in God the Father. [God is Creator of humankind and is the first member of the Trinity.] Genesis 1; Psalm 8; Matthew 3:13-17; Matthew 28:19
- 2: Belief in Jesus as the Son of God. [Jesus is Messiah, which means Savior of humankind, and is the second member of the Trinity.] John 1:18
- 3: Belief in the Immaculate Conception or Virgin Birth of Jesus through Mary. [Jesus was conceived not through natural means but through supernatural means via the Holy Spirit.] Matthew 1:18, 20; Luke 1:27
- 4: Belief in the Crucifixion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. [Jesus died by crucifixion, he experienced a physical death, and was resurrected from the dead after three days in the grave.] Matthew 27:33-66; 28:1-11; Mark 16:14-19
- 5: Belief in Jesus sitting at the right hand of God as the Ultimate Judge of the living and the dead. [After death, Jesus ascended to the Father where he will reside until the Second Coming where he will judge the quick and the dead.] Mark 16:19, Rev. 20:12, Rev. 22:12, Matthew 25:32, Romans 14:10, 1 Corinthians 4:5
- 6: Belief in God the Holy Spirit. [The Holy Spirit is our Comforter, and He is the third member of the Trinity.] John 15:26; Acts 2
- 7: Belief in the Universal Church as God's Ordained Institution for sharing, receiving and promoting the Gospel of Jesus Christ. [Those who are saved by God's grace become the vehicles by which God's love and grace are shared throughout the world.] 1 Corinthians 14:33, 12:12-27
- 8: Belief in the Holy Eucharist or Sacrament of Communion as sharing or partaking in the body and blood of Jesus. [Communion both reminds us of Jesus' blood sacrifice to save us from destruction and to forgive us for our sin. These are the chief reasons for celebrating the sacraments of bread and wine; to remember God's grace toward us.] Psalm 11:1; Hebrews 10:25
- 9: Belief in the Forgiveness of Sins through Jesus Christ. [It is only through the shedding of Jesus' blood on the cross that we are forgiven of sins.] 1 John 1:9
- 10: Belief in Eternal Life or Life Everlasting, which is only available through relationship with Jesus Christ. [At the end of this earthly life we know that we have an eternal home with God, not made with hands, that is only available to us through belief in and relationship with Jesus.] Luke 20:36; Acts 24:15; 1 Corinthians 15:15-52; 1 Thessalonians 4:16; John 3:15

THE 25 ARTICLES OF RELIGION

1. OF FAITH IN THE HOLY TRINITY

There is but one living and true God, everlasting, without body or parts, of infinite power, wisdom and goodness; he maker and preserver of all things, both visible and invisible. And in unity of this God-head, there are three persons of one substance, power and eternity; the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

2. OF THE WORD OR SON OF GOD, WHO WAS MADE VERY MAN

The Son, who is the Word of the Father, the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, took man's nature in the womb of the blessed Virgin; so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say, the God-head and manhood, were joined together in one person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God and very man, who suffered, was crucified, dead and buried, to reconcile his Father to us, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for actual sins of men.

3. OF THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

Christ did truly rise from the dead, and took again his body with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith he ascended into heaven, and sitteth until he returns to judge all men at last day.

4. OF THE HOLY GHOST

The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty and glory with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

5. THE SUFFICIENCY OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES FOR SALVATION

The Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation; so that whatever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation. In the name of the Holy Scriptures, we do understand those canonical books of the Old and New Testament, of whose authority was never any doubt in the Church.

The Names of the Canonical Books:

Genesis Exodus Leviticus Numbers Deuteronomy Joshua Judges Ruth

The First Book of Samuel The Second Book of Samuel The First Book of Kings

The Second Book of Kings

The First Book of Chronicles The Second Book of Chronicles The Book of Ezra

The Book of Nehemiah The Book of Esther The Book of Job

The Book of Psalms The Proverbs

Ecclesiastes, or the Preacher Cantica, or Songs of Solomon Four Prophets, the Greater Twelve Prophets, the Lesser

All the books of the New Testament as they are commonly received, we do receive and account canonical.

6. OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

The Old Testament is not contrary to the New; for both in the Old and the New Testament, everlasting life is offered to mankind by Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and man, being both God and man. Wherefore, they are not to be heard, who feign that the old fathers did look only for transitory promises? Although the law given from God by Moses, as touching ceremonies and rites, doth not bind Christians, nor ought the civil precepts thereof of necessity be received in any commonwealth; yet notwithstanding, no Christian whatsoever is free from the obedience of the Commandments, which are called moral.

7. OF ORIGINAL OR BIRTH SIN

Original sin standeth not in the following of Adam (as the Pelagians do vainly talk) but it is the corruption of the nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam, whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and of his own nature inclined to evil, and that continually.

8. OF FREE WILL

The condition of man after the fall of Adam is such that he cannot turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith, and calling upon God; wherefore, we have no power to do good works, pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God; by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

9. OF THE JUSTIFICATION OF MAN

We are accounted righteous before God only for the merit of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, by faith, and not by our own works or deservings; wherefore, that we are justified by faith only, is a most wholesome doctrine, and very full of comfort.

10. OF GOOD WORKS

Although good works, which are the fruit of faith, and follow after justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's judgments: yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and spring out of a true and lively faith, insomuch that they by them a lively faith may be as evidently known, as a tree is discerned by its fruit.

11. OF WORKS OF SUPEREROGATION

Voluntary works, besides, over and above God's Commandments, which they call works of supererogation, cannot be taught without arrogancy and impiety. For by them men do declare that they do not only render unto God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for His sake than of bounden duty is required; whereas Christ said plainly, "When ye have done all that is commanded you, say, we are unprofitable servants."

12. OF SIN AFTER JUSTIFICATION

Not every sin willingly committed after justification is the sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore, the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after justification. After we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God, rise again, and amend your lives. And therefore they are to be condemned who say they can do no more sin as long as they live here; or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

13. OF THE CHURCH

The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

14. OF PURGATORY

The Romish doctrine concerning purgatory, pardon, worshipping, and adoration, as well as images, as of relics, and also invocations of saints, is a fond thing, vainly invented, and grounded upon no warrant of Scripture, but repugnant of the Word of God.

15. OF SPEAKING IN THE CONGREGATION IN SUCH A TONGUE AS THE PEOPLE UNDERSTAND

It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the custom of the primitive Church, (to have public prayer in the Church,) or to minister the Sacraments, in a tongue not understood by the people.

16. OF THE SACRAMENTS

Sacraments ordained of Christ are not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession, but rather they are certain signs of grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our faith in Him.

There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord, in the Gospel; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord.

Those five commonly called sacraments, that is to say, Confirmation, Penance, Orders, Matrimony and Extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel; being such as have partly grown out of the corrupt following of the Apostles; and partly are states of life allowed in the Scriptures, but yet have not the like nature of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, because they have not any visible sign, or ceremony ordained of God.

The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about; but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same, they have a wholesome effect or operation; but they that received them unworthily, purchase to themselves condemnation, as St. Paul saith.

17. OF BAPTISM

Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference; but it is also a sign of regeneration, or the new birth. The baptism of young children is to be retained in the church.

18. OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another, but rather is a Sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death; insomuch, that to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith receive the same, the bread which we break is a partaking of the body of Christ; and likewise the cup of blessing is a partaking of the blood of Christ.

Transubstantiation, or the change of the substance of bread and wine in the Supper of our Lord, cannot be proved by Holy Writ; but is repugnant to the plain words of Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a sacrament, and hath given occasion to many superstitions.

The body of Christ is given, taken and eaten in the Supper, only after a heavenly and spiritual manner. And the means whereby the body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper, is faith.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

19. OF BOTH KINDS

The cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the lay people: for both parents of the Lord's Supper, by Christ's ordinance and commandment, ought to be administered to all Christians alike.

20. OF THE ONE OBLATION OF CHRIST, FINISHED UPON THE CROSS

The offering of Christ once made, is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin but that alone. Wherefore the sacraments of masses, in which it is commonly said that that priest doth offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, is a blasphemous fable, and dangerous deceit.

21. OF THE MARRIAGE OF MINISTERS

The ministers of Christ are not commanded by God's law either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from marriage; therefore, it is lawful for them, as for all other Christians, to marry at their own discretion, as they shall judge the same to serve best to godliness.

22. OF THE RITES AND CEREMONIES OF CHURCHES

It is not necessary that rites and ceremonies should in all places be the same, or exactly alike; for they have been always different, and may be changed according to the diversity of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever, through his private judgment, willingly and purposely, doth openly break the rites and ceremonies of the church to which he belongs, which are not repugnant of the Word of God, and are ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly, that others may fear to do the like, as one that offendeth against the common order of the Church and woundeth the consciences of weak brethren.

Every particular Church may ordain, change, or abolish rites and ceremonies so that all things may be done to edification.

23. OF THE RULERS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The President, the Congress, the General Assemblies, the Governors, and the Councils of State, as the delegates of the people, are the rulers of the United States of America[1], according to the division of power made to them by the Constitution of the United States, and by the constitution of their respective states and the Councils of States delegates of the people, are the rulers of the United States of America, and by the Constitutions of their respective States. And the said states are a sovereign and independent nation, and ought not to be subject to any foreign jurisdiction.

It is acknowledged that the African Methodist Episcopal Church was organized in the United States. However, the African Methodist Episcopal Church is an international Christian body with constituents around the world, and a Christian witness that is both parochial and global.

Article 23 presumes the duty, loyalty and patriotism of our constituents, as citizens of sovereign nations, to obey just laws, to recognize and respect the organizational structure, and to uphold the Constitution of the country or nation-state in which our members hold the rights and privileges of citizenship. Further, obedience to Civil Government is one of the principle duties of all persons, and was honored by our Lord and His Apostles. Though differing in form and policy, all just governments rightfully commend the obedience, loyalty, support, and defense of all Christian men and women they control and protect.

24. OF CHRISTIAN MEN'S GOODS

The riches and goods of Christians are not common as touching the right, title and possession of the same, as some do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally, to give alms to the poor, according to his ability.

25. OF A CHRISTIAN MAN'S OATH

As we confess that vain and rash swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord, Jesus Christ and James, His apostle: so we judge that the Christian religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the magistrate requireth, in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the prophet's teaching, in justice, judgment, and truth.

The Lord's Prayer: 8 Components for Understanding How to Pray

Matthew 6:6-13 & Matthew 11:2-4

The Lord's Prayer is a Pattern for Prayer

Myles Munroe describes prayer as “...approaching God in order to ask Him to accomplish His will in the earth.”

Components of the Lord's Prayer

1. Our Father

- a. We are to never bring ourselves to prayer; rather, we are to bring other people's concerns with us.
- b. When we pray we are to identify who we are praying to. Father denotes “Source” and by praying to the Father we acknowledge that He is the Source from which our needs are met.

2. In Heaven

- a. Helps us remember that we are not praying to someone on earth; rather, the Source of our strength is in Heaven.
- b. Recognizes that our help is from outside the earthly realms.
- c. Understands God is greater than we are and that it is only through His Son that we are able to receive what we stand in need of.

3. Hallowed Be Your Name

- a. Hallowed means to reverence, set apart or sanctify.
- b. Denotes Holiness.
- c. By glorifying the father and acknowledging His Holiness we are able to move into a position of worship.
- d. When we pray we should use different names of God to describe who he is to us and to bring us into a position of gratitude & worship.

4. Your Kingdom Come, Your Will Be Done

- a. We understand that it is not about us but about God's kingdom.
- b. We understand that while we may be praying for one thing, God's response may be something totally different.
- c. We understand that though we have a right to ask for anything and everything we think we deserve, we also realize that only God's will will prevail.
- d. We understand that it is only when we look beyond our own needs to the needs of others that God will begin to break forth and move in our individual situations.

5. Give Us Our Daily Bread

- a. We are praying for God to do whatever He needs to do to work all things together for our good.
- b. We are not asking God for food; rather, we are asking God for everything that is necessary for our spiritual, emotional and health wellness.

6. Forgive Us Our Sins, For We Also Forgive

- a. Prayer is not an isolated activity between us and God; it takes into consideration our relationship with others.
- b. Must reconcile with our brother/sister continually before going to God in prayer.
- c. Must forgive others as God has forgiven us if we are to experience victory in prayer.
- d. Must forgive others so that we are freed from the bondage of sin which may result from feelings of being violated and misunderstood.
- e. Having good relationships is one of the keys to answered prayer.
- f. Pray and fast so that God will reveal to you all the hurt, bitterness, and anger you are holding against people so your prayers are not hindered
- g. Forgiveness frees prayers so they are answered.
- h. God is looking for clean hands and clean hearts (Ps 24:2-4) and he will not respond to us if we regard iniquity in our hearts (Ps 66:18).

7. Do Not Lead Us Into Temptation

- a. We are to ask God for wisdom so that we won't put ourselves in situations that will cause us to compromise our relationship with him.
- b. We are to ask for strength and wisdom to stop making bad decisions and to stop going into bad situations that will tempt us to sin.
- c. We need to be alert to the temptations and weaknesses that could harm our relationship with God and our testimony for Him, things that Satan will exploit to cause us to stumble.

8. Yours Is The Kingdom, Power & Glory

- a. Considered the benediction or the blessing.
- b. Agrees with God that what has been prayed will be manifested.
- c. Believes in the Omnipotent, Omnipresence, Omniscience of God.
- d. Believes God's Word will not return void but shall accomplish the purpose for which it set out.
- e. Believes God will watch over His word to perform it in our life and the lives of others.
- f. Believes that God is able to manifest from nothing, something that we did not have the power to even conceptualize.
- g. Believes that God is able to do exceeding abundantly more that what we ask or think.
- h. Counts the prayer as DONE!

Bible Structure & Divisions

The Bible is divided into two main parts - the Old Testament and the New Testament. Testament means covenant or mutual understanding or agreement.

The Old Testament contains 39 books. It records the history and religious literature of the Jewish people who believed in one God who was loving and just. The Old Testament is full of promises that God would send a deliverer to his people, someone who would bring freedom and redemption.

The first book of the Old Testament is called Genesis, which means beginning. Starting with the creation, the book of Genesis includes many of the themes that are developed later in the Bible. The hope of a great deliverer is first found here, while the last book of the Old Testament - Malachi - closes the Old Testament.

BOOKS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Genesis	2 Chronicles	Daniel
Exodus	Ezra	Hosea
Leviticus	Nehemiah	Joel
Numbers	Esther	Amos
Deuteronomy	Job	Obadiah
Joshua	Psalms	Jonah
Judges	Proverbs	Micah
Ruth	Ecclesiastes	Nahum
1 Samuel	Song of Solomon	Habakkuk
2 Samuel	Isaiah	Zephaniah
1 Kings	Jeremiah	Haggai
2 Kings	Lamentations	Zechariah
1 Chronicles	Ezekiel	Malachi

The New Testament contains 27 books including gospels, history and letters. Gospel basically means good news.

The four gospels - Matthew, Mark, Luke and John - tell of the birth, life, teachings, death and resurrection of Jesus. The book of Acts is like a short history. It tells of the spread of Christianity.

The letters are from Christian leaders to individuals and to churches. They deal with things like living as a Christian, why Jesus had to die and how we are all equal in the eyes of God. The last book of the New Testament is Revelation. It's also a letter but it's written in a very different style to the earlier letters.

BOOKS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

Matthew	Ephesians	Hebrews
Mark	Philippians	James
Luke	Colossians	1 Peter
John	1 Thessalonians	2 Peter
Acts	2 Thessalonians	1 John
Romans	1 Timothy	2 John
1 Corinthians	2 Timothy	3 John
2 Corinthians	Titus	Jude
Galatians	Philemon	Revelation

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism

The AME Church recognizes and observes two holy sacraments: Baptism and Holy Communion. The modes of baptism are pouring, sprinkling, and immersion. Regardless of the mode administered, baptism is a powerful symbol of regeneration and initiation into the community of faith – Christ's Church. Holy Communion services as a memorial of the death and suffering of Christ and celebrates the abundant life we have through Him.

To baptize by immersion is to plunge the whole person into water. Baptism symbolizes the death, burial, and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Submerging believers under water is symbolic of the death and burial of Jesus Christ. The emergence from the water portrays the resurrection and life of Jesus Christ. Finally, water baptism is also a witness to the world that one is no longer united with the devil, but united with Christ.

The sacrament of baptism publicly declares that you belong to Christ. The sacrament of baptism signals to the world that you have made a decision to begin a new life; one that will intentionally focus on living righteously for Christ as per the Holy Scriptures.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion

The Supper of the Lord is a sign of the love that Christians ought to have for one another and our redemption by Christ's death. The bread that we break is a partaking of the body of Christ and likewise the cup is a partaking of the blood of Christ. In the AME doctrine, the Supper of the Lord is administered to all Christians alike.

The Lord's Supper was instituted on the night our Lord met with His disciples to keep the annual Passover and also the same night in which he was betrayed. During the Lord's Supper, Jesus took the opportunity to inform His disciples that they would no longer need to celebrate the Passover as they traditionally had because after tonight, he was going to become their Passover lamb. His body was going to be sacrificed and broken for them and his blood was going to be shed for them.

Before we partake in the Lord's Supper in a meaningful way, it is essential that we engage in an honest self-examination: unconfessed sin, examine our minds to ensure our thoughts are of the ministry of Christ, and examine our motives to see if what we do and say is pleasing to God and for his Glory.

History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church

The African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church has a unique and glorious history. It is unique in that it is the first major religious denomination in the Western world that had its origin over sociological rather than theological beliefs and differences.

In 1787, Rev. Richard Allen, the founder and first bishop of the AME Church, along with Absalom Jones, and a band of followers withdrew from the St. George's Methodist Church in Philadelphia because of the unkind treatment and discrimination to worshippers of African descent. Allen and the others began worshipping in a blacksmith shop. They founded the Free African Society, which was the beginning of the AME Church.

Richard Allen learned that other groups were suffering under the same conditions. After study and consultation, five churches came together in a General Convention, which met in Philadelphia, PA, April 9-11, 1816, and formed the AME Church. The name African Methodist came naturally, as Negroes at that time were called Africans and they followed the teaching of the Methodist Church as founded by John Wesley. The young Church accepted the Methodist doctrine and Discipline almost in its entirety.

Our founder

Richard Allen was born on February 14, 1760 in Philadelphia, PA. He was born into slavery; his family was the property of a wealthy Philadelphia lawyer, Benjamin Chew. Later Richard and his family were sold to Stockley Sturgis in Delaware. Sturgis allowed Allen to learn to read and write and through his reading he became interested in religion and attended local Methodist meetings until people objected. Sturgis then allowed Methodist meetings on his plantation and Allen soon found that preaching was his calling, and is said to have influenced Sturgis' own conversion to the Methodist religion. In 1783, Richard Allen purchased his freedom and moved back to Philadelphia.

He began preaching and regularly worshipped in the Methodist church. However, he and other black worshippers faced opposition from some of the white members of the church. Instead of forcing the issue, Allen left the Methodist congregation and in 1787 he began his own congregation where people could worship without restriction and harassment. As the free black population of Philadelphia grew, Allen continued to devote his efforts to bringing increasing numbers of black people into the Methodist religion.

Allen was an organizer of the Free African Society, a group that fostered self-help and self-dependence. He established day and night schools, and was co-organizer of the first Masonic lodge for colored men in Pennsylvania.

From 1797 to his death on March 26, 1831, Allen operated a station on the Underground Railway. This work was continued by Bethel Church until Emancipation. Bishop Allen was married to Sarah Bass Allen and was the father of six children - Richard Jr., James, John, Peter, Sarah and Ann.

Our name

The AMEC, or African Methodist Episcopal Church, is Methodist in its beliefs and was founded nearly 200 years ago to give blacks their own place of worship. AMEC members hold to Bible-based doctrines similar to those of other Christian denominations.

African. The word African means that the church was organized by people of African descent and heritage. It does not mean that the church was founded in Africa, or that it was for persons of African descent only. It simply means that those Americans who founded it were of African descent, and we proudly recognize this fact.

In the year 1787 Richard Allen, our founder, and a group of dark-skinned Americans of African descent were forced to organize themselves into a separate group for their own spiritual, social, educational and general growth and development. At that time the word Negro or colored had not yet come into general use in reference to those of us who are now called American Negroes. All of our ancestors of that day were referred to as Africans. This particular group of Americans of African descent, under the leadership of Richard Allen, constituted the first and founding members of our church.

Methodist. Our church is a member of the family of Methodist Churches. Richard Allen, our founder and first active bishop, felt that no religious group or denomination would suit the capacity of his people as well as did Methodism. He was impressed with its emphasis upon the plain and simple gospel which the unlearned could understand, and its orderly system of rules and regulations which the under-developed needed. He felt that Methodism had what we needed to encourage us to make progress, to worship God freely, and to fill every office which was available in church and in our total community.

Episcopal. The word “Episcopal” refers to the form of government under which our church operates. The episcopal form of government means that the chief executive and administrative officers of our denomination are our Bishops. Their authority is given them by the General Conference. Stated briefly, their responsibilities are to oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of our church, including presiding over annual conferences, making pastoral appointments, ordaining deacons and elders, organizing missions, and generally promoting the interest of the denomination.

Church. The Christian Church is a community of people who believe in God and who have accepted Jesus Christ as the Guide and Master of their lives. We who make up the Christian Church believe that God, through Jesus Christ can transform individuals in such a way as to cause them to want to be like, think like, and act like Jesus in every area of their daily lives. We also believe that there is a divine power, referred to as the Holy Spirit, which enables the willing person to become a true and effective servant of God, as Jesus was a true and effective servant.

Jesus Christ is the spiritual head of the Christian Church. The A.M.E. denomination and the local church of which you are a member represent an organized group of Christian believers who are studying, learning, growing, serving and further developing themselves into effective Christian servants. This is a part of what it means to be a Christian.

Our Mission

The mission of the AME Church is to minister to the social, spiritual, and physical development of all people.

The Church engages in carrying out the spirit of the original Free African Society, out of which the AME Church evolved: that is, to seek out and save the lost, and serve the needy through a continuing program of (1) preaching the gospel, (2) feeding the hungry, (3) clothing the naked, (4) housing the homeless, (5) cheering the fallen, (6) providing jobs for the jobless, (7) administering to the needs of those in prisons, hospitals, nursing homes, asylums and mental institutions, senior citizens' homes; caring for the sick, the shut-in, the mentally and socially disturbed, and (8) encouraging thrift and economic advancement.

Our Objective

In order to meet the needs of every level of the Connection and in every local church, the AME Church shall implement strategies to train all members in: (1) Christian discipleship, (2) Christian leadership, (3) current teaching methods and materials, (4) the history and significance of the AME Church, (5) God's biblical principles, and (6) social development to which all should be applied to daily living.

Our Emblem and Motto

The emblem displays characteristics that can be equated to a significant aspect of the African Methodist Episcopal doctrine and belief.

The shape of the emblem is in the form of a three-pointed shield. The three points being symbolic of the original Church motto, "God our Father, Christ our Redeemer, Man our Brother."

A new motto, "God Our Father, Christ Our Redeemer, the Holy Spirit Our Comforter, Humankind Our Family", was adopted at the 2008 General Conference in St. Louis, MO.

An anvil and cross occupy the center of the Emblem. The anvil represents the blacksmith shop in Philadelphia where the first AME Church was established and the cross represents the Church.

Our Responsibility

The AME Church believes in serving God and the world through Worship, Fellowship, Missions, Evangelism, Stewardship, Education, Publications, and Welfare. Our membership believes in:

- Discipleship - committing your life to Christ
- Witnessing - telling what Jesus has done for you
- Giving - supporting the work of the church
- Participating actively in church affairs
- Representing the church in daily activities and
- Personal Growth as a child of God

Our Structure

The African Methodist Episcopal Church is a connectional organization. Each local church is a part of the larger connection.

The Bishops are the Chief Officers of the Connectional Organization. They are elected for life by a majority vote of the General Conference, which meets every four years. Bishops are bound by the laws of the church to retire following their 75th birthday.

Presiding Elders are the assistants, like middle management, whom the Bishops appoint to supervise the preachers in a Presiding Elder's District. A Presiding Elder District is one portion of an Annual Conference, which in turn is one part of the Episcopal District over which a Bishop presides. In the Presiding Elder District, the appointed Presiding Elder meets with the local churches that comprise the District, at least once every three months for a Quarterly Conference. The Presiding Elder also presides over a District Conference and a Sunday School Convention in his or her District. At the end of an Annual Conference year, the Presiding Elder reports to the Bishop at the Annual Conference and makes recommendations for pastoral appointments.

Pastors receive a yearly appointment to a charge (church), on the recommendation of the Presiding Elder and with the approval and final appointment of the Bishop. The pastor is in full charge of the Church and is an ex-official member of all boards, organizations and clubs of that Church.

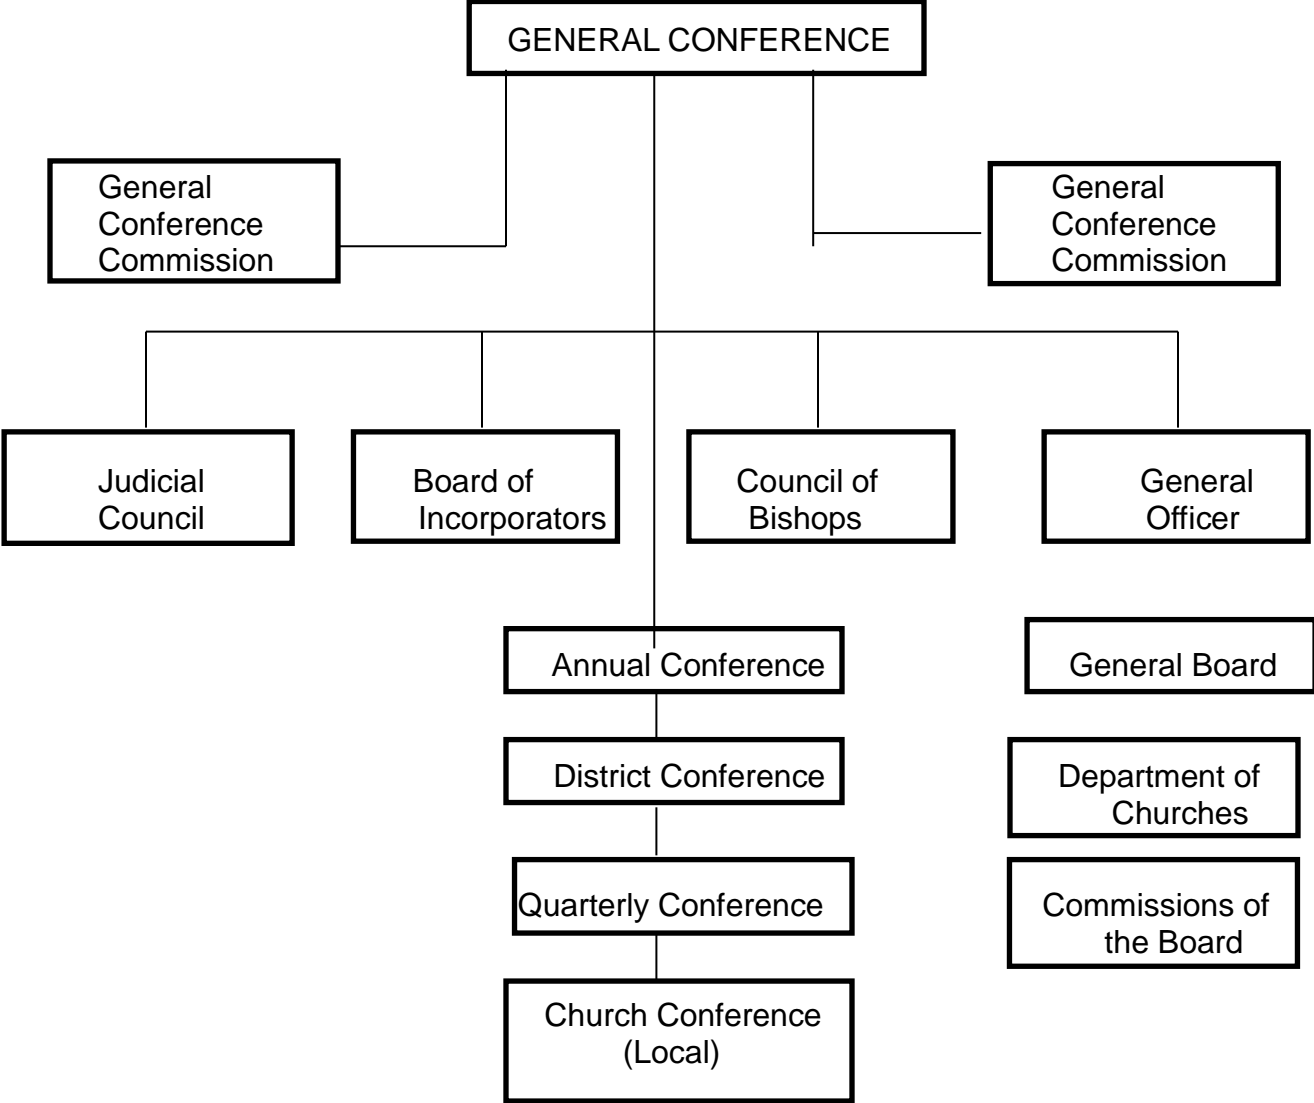

The Four Horsemen of the AME Church

The Four Horsemen of the AME Church are the four pillars upon which the Church was built. Their contributions were instrumental in the Church's development.

- ◆ Richard Allen - Founder and first Bishop of the AME Church.
- ◆ Daniel A. Payne – Sixth Bishop of the AME Church and the first to have formal theological seminary training. He is credited with establishing the Church's attention toward trained ministry.
- ◆ Henry McNeal Turner - Twelfth Bishop of the AME Church. Helped recruit colored soldiers for the U.S. Army in the Civil War. Was appointed Chaplain of Negro Troops in 1863 by President Lincoln and the first Chaplain of the regular U.S. Army by President Johnson. Turner organized AME Churches all over the state of Georgia and West Africa and South Africa.
- ◆ William Paul Quinn - Fourth Bishop of the AME Church. Did monumental work as a great preacher and missionary: preaching, traveling and organizing churches in the "Western Mission" which included Missouri and Kentucky.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE A.M.E. CHURCH

The Annual Conference

The Annual Conference is the basic unit of the Connectional Church. It meets once a year to receive reports of Pastors, Presiding Elders, and Committees. It is composed of Ministerial Members, one Lay Member from each Pastoral Charge, and is presided over by the Episcopal Bishop. Some of the other duties of the Annual Conference are as follows:

1. Elect Ministerial Delegates to the General Conference.
2. Examine candidates for the Ministry. Admit and ordain those who qualify.
3. Assign Pastors of the charges.
4. Receive all funds for connectional purposes and send same to treasurer of Connectional Church.
5. Attend to all other Connectional and Annual Conference business.

The District Conference

Just as each Episcopal District is divided into a number of Annual Conferences, each Annual Conference is divided into a number of Districts. Each of these districts is presided over by a Presiding Elder appointed by the Bishop of the Episcopal District.

The Presiding Elder's District is made up of a number of Churches of the Annual Conference. Whenever the Pastors of these Churches and delegates from these Churches meet at the call of the Presiding Elder, the meeting is called a District Conference. If the meeting is called to deal with Sunday School or Allen Christian Endeavor work, it is called Sunday School and A.C.E. Convention.

Quarterly Conference

One of the most important Conferences of the A.M.E. Church is the Quarterly Conference. It is in this Conference that the over-all plans and policies of the local Church are considered and determined. The Quarterly Conference is the supreme governing body of the local Church, and the means by which the local Church is tied to the Connectional Church. The Presiding Officer of the Quarterly Conference is the Presiding Elder. He is the only Officer present who may not be a member of that particular local Church. He is present and presides as a representative of the A.M.E. Church as a whole.

The Episcopal District

For convenience and administrative purposes, the A.M.E. Church as a whole is divided into areas called Episcopal Districts, and one Bishop is assigned to preside over each of these. Each Episcopal District is composed of a number of Annual Conferences.

Presiding Elders

The Presiding Elder is the official of the A.M.E. Connection charged with the responsibility of seeing that each local Church under his Supervision understand and complies with the policies and program of the Connection. The Bishop appoints the Presiding Elder.

The position of a Presiding Elder is administrative and advisory through the District Conference and Church School Convention: an in-service training for Pastors, Local Preachers, and Lay Workers.

A Geographical Overview of the 20 Episcopal Districts

The AME Church is comprised of over 2.5 million members, 8,000 ministers, and 20 Episcopal Districts with 7000 congregations in more than 30 nations in North and South America, Africa, Asia, and Europe.

History of Bridge Street Church

The African Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church, also known as Bridge Street African Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church, has been documented as the oldest black congregation in the Brooklyn-Long Island area.

The earliest records date back to 1766 when a British captain named Thomas Webb began holding open air services in downtown Brooklyn. Captain Webb was a convert of John Wesley, the father of Methodism in America. He attracted a small following and was later succeeded by Woolman Hickson, a local preacher. In 1794 the congregation purchased the land on which they held these open-air services from a wealthy Brooklyn landowner named Joshua Sands. Later a small church was built, and as it was the custom in those days to name streets and buildings after wealthy landowners, the church was named The Sands Street Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church. The congregation consisted of Caucasians, free Negroes, and ex-slaves.

By 1804, under the pastorate of the Rev. Cyrus Stebbins, the Sands Street congregation increased so rapidly that a larger place of worship became a necessity. In 1810, a new church was completed. The church was named The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Brooklyn and had a mixed number of fifteen hundred members.

Between 1810 and 1817, the Black church membership increased rapidly causing relations between Blacks and Whites to deteriorate. The Whites wanted Blacks to pay $10 a quarter to worship in galleries which had been allotted to them. This monetary burden was the determining factor in their decision to get a place of their own to worship. They withdrew from The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Brooklyn and temporarily worshipped in each others homes.

At a meeting held May 14, 1817, they formed a society to raise funds to buy land on which to build a church, agreeing to pay 50 cents a month into a treasure for a building fund. In the fall of 1817, a grand rally was held and the amount of $130 was collected towards the building fund.

On January 12, 1818, after being legally notified, the "male" members of the society met for the purpose of choosing trustees, whose duties were to take care of the temporal affairs of the church or religious instruction. A delegation was appointed to go to Philadelphia to see Bishop Richard Allen of The AME Church about sending a preacher for the new church and to ordain several of the delegates as local preachers. This began Bridge Street's affiliation with the AME Church. On February 7, 1818 the Church was officially incorporated. On July 21, 1819, the church corporation purchased land located on the east side of High Street near Jay Street, and here was built the first African Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church in Brooklyn.

By 1840, the membership of High Street had grown to 195 members and it was time to secure a larger place to worship. On July 12, 1854, the AWME Church bought from the trustees of The First Congregational Church the property at 309 Bridge Street for $12,000. On the first Sunday in August 1854, The Rev. James Morris Williams, the twenty-first pastor of the AWME Church, marched his congregation from High Street to their new church home at 309 Bridge Street.

On Sunday, December 4, 1938, the Rev. Mansfield E. Jackson, the fifty-second pastor of the Bridge Street, marched his congregation from 309 Bridge Street to their new church home at 277 Stuyvesant Avenue, which was purchased from the Grace Presbyterian Church. From its pulpit at Sands Street, High Street, Bridge Street and Stuyvesant Avenue, some of the greatest preachers and orators of the last two centuries have championed the cause for the right of the people of African descent to exist as a child of God and equal to his brother.

Our Stewardship

Stewardship is the act of managing or directing our God-given resources and talents to advance God's kingdom. Every member of Bridge Street Church is encouraged to take seriously their responsibility to be good stewards by contributing to the ongoing functioning of the church through use of their spiritual gifts and their financial giving.

A steward is a keeper, not an owner. S/he handles that which rightfully belongs to another. S/he feels accountable personally for the careful protection and wise use of that which is entrusted to them, and handles the possessions of the owner with more caution and concern than they would if it were their own.

As Christians we are not owners of our earthly possessions; we are users and keepers of God's possessions. One thing we must always remember is that God is the giver of everything in this earth (Ps. 24:1; I Cor. 6:19,20). Whatever we have is a result of God's generosity and we must be a good manager of God's possessions and give an account of all God has entrusted in our hands. We have the responsibility to use all that God has entrusted to us for His glory and not our own.

The Tithe: Giving As God Requires

The Bible teaches tithing as the biblical principle for giving to God. The word tithe means tenth, or 10% of one's increase or income - the tenth part of anything that is devoted and given to God. Out of the 66 books in the Holy Scriptures, 34 of them deal in one way or another with the subject of giving and receiving. Out of 72 references to giving, 48 show God's unequivocal promise of His abundant blessings to the giver (Luke 6:38).

Tithe in the Old Testament:

- God taught Adam and Eve how to tithe in the beginning (Genesis 4:2-7).
- Tithing of Abraham (Genesis 14:17-20)
- Jacob's Tenth (Genesis 28:10-22)
- Levitical Laws to Israel (Leviticus 27:30-33)
- Heave Offering Given to Levites (Numbers 18:21-24)
- Hezekiah Restoring the tithes (II Chronicles 31: 2-12)
- Nehemiah and the tithes stores in the temple (Nehemiah 10:34-39)
- Malachi 3:6-12

Tithes and offerings did not cease under the New Covenant - Law and Grace:

- Religious Leaders (Matt 23:23)
- Two Mites (Mark 12:41-44, Luke 21:1-4)
- The Apostle Paul's Teachings (I Corinthians 9)
- The Lord ordained it (Matt 10:10, Luke 10:7-8)
- First Day of the Week (I Corinthians 16:1-2)
- Equality in giving (II Corinthians 8:14)
- It shows their faith in God

A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil, or fruit from the trees, belongs to the Lord; it is holy to the Lord (Leviticus 27:30). Tithing is a primary mechanism by which believers actively participate in building God's Kingdom on earth. Tithing also explicitly acknowledges God's ownership of all we possess, including our time, talent, and treasure. Church members are called to support the life and mission of the church of which they are a part with reasonable contributions proportionate to their income and circumstances. The act of claiming ownership over someone else's property is known as robbing. When we don't tithe, we rob God by claiming ownership over what is rightfully His. Consequently, it can bring the curse of poverty into our life (Malachi 3:8-9).

Below are some scriptures to guide you in your understanding of the tithe:

- a. The plan of the tithe (Matt. 23:23; I Cor. 16:2)
- b. The purpose of the tithe (Acts 20:35)
- c. The plea for the tithe (Mal. 3:10)
- d. The principle of tithe and offering (Mal. 3:8)

The Tithe vs. The Offering

“Each person should give what they have decided in their heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver” (II Cor. 9:7). An offering assumes that we are already fulfilling the basic expectation of supporting the church through the tithe. Therefore, an offering is anything given in addition to the tithe.

The law of tithing is given not so much to benefit the Church financially as much as it is to spiritually bless the tither. Tithing is about faith, not just money. God is not interested in how many robes or TV screens your 10% can purchase. He is interested in the condition of your heart and your willingness to do His will. By giving a regular tithe, we meet the physical needs of the Church so it can feed the spiritual needs of the community (2 Cor. 8:7).

Many congregants are unaware of the vast financial resources it takes to do mission work, organize ministries, or manage God’s house (e.g. maintaining water, heat, electricity, custodial and administrative staff, office and janitorial supplies, liability, property and fire insurance, etc). Without the tithe, the church would be unable to support those in need, and it would be unable to meet your need to have the church open during the week and on weekends to host community events.

Your Giving Envelopes & Envelope Number

All new members are assigned envelope numbers and are provided with a box of giving envelopes during their New Member Class. If you have not received your giving envelopes or have been assigned an envelope number, please contact the church office at (718) 452-3936 to request them. Your envelope number is important and it should be used when you are making donations to the church for your tithe and your offering. At the end of the year, all members are provided a statement of their giving for tax purposes.

There are several categories on the envelope that you should be aware of:

- General Offering – is an amount given by a non-tither or non-member toward the support of the church. These members, though consistent givers (that is, they give on a consistent basis less than 10% of their income) are considered proportional givers, not tithers.
- Class Dues – in a traditional Methodist Church would support the Pastor’s temporal needs. At Bridge Street class dues are used to support church-wide fellowships such as New Member Receptions, Pasta and Pancakes with the Pastor, and pastoral initiatives organized to connect congregants with God and each other.
- Other - such as special fundraising campaigns allows donors to designate the cause for which they would like to contribute.

Glossary of Terms

CHRISTAN – As members of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, we belong to the large family of Christian Churches. The shed blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has purchased us. Through Faith in His victory over Satan, the grave, and death we become heirs to the precious gift of eternal life, which we will spend, with our God. As the Lord's Church, we comprise the Body of Christ and we are empowered by the Holy Spirit. On this earth we hold a charter of Salvation, which authorizes us to call sinners to repentance and accept Jesus Christ as Savior, Messiah, and Liberator. John 3:14-15; Acts 2:21, 11:20-26

PROTESTANT – Members of the African Methodist Episcopal Church are heirs to the Protestant Reformation. We affirm the authority of the Scriptures. We believe in justification by faith. We belong to the priesthood of all believers. Rm. 3:28; Gal. 2:16; 1 Pet. 2:5-9

WESLEYAN - We are a Methodist people. We subscribe to the Wesleyan quadrilateral. Scripture, tradition, reason, and experience shape our religious beliefs and practices. Moreover, our Wesleyan background has an immediate impact upon our founding A.M.E. fathers and mothers.

First, Wesleyanism contends that there is a phenomenon called preeminent grace. This means that, even in our state of original sin, every person possess some spark of grace that is sufficient to enable everyone to begin to turn from sin toward God. That, even in the most vile among us, there is some evidence of God's grace that helps us to harken unto the gospel of Jesus Christ, and with the help of the Holy Spirit, to hear it, and accept it.

Secondly, we believe in sanctification. Hear how John Wesley (1703-1791) defined it. He noted: "Sanctification, what is sanctification? ... It means to be renewed in the image of God, in righteousness, and true holiness. We are justified by faith. When we begin to believe...the sanctification begins, and as faith increases, holiness increases until we are created anew." Perfectionism is the process that sanctification starts. Perfectionism means an overflowing of the love of God into the life of man so as to eradicate even the roots of original sin. From original sin we start to grow toward perfect love. We are moving, we are not perfect, but the sanctification process pushes us and moves us toward perfection.

These crucial components of Wesleyanism affected your founding fathers and mothers. Search the testimonies of Richard Allen (1760-1831) and Jarena Lee (1783-?). Richard Allen founded the AME Church first through the Free African Society in 1787 and formally in denominational form in 1816. Jarena Lee whom he licensed to preach in 1817 was the first woman authorized to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ under A.M.E. auspices. Take note of their respective testimonies that connected them to Wesleyanism. Rm 15:16; 1 Thes 4:3

AFRICAN/AFRICAN AMERICAN – We were forged out of the crucible of the African/African American experience. Our relationship with God was developed within these contexts – the contexts of oppression, slavery, segregation, colonialism, and other long and difficult experiences. These circumstances have given to us special insights and sensibilities about how God relates to oppressed people everywhere; we know firsthand what God will do for them and through them. Listen to our testimonies in the slave narratives, in the spirituals, in gospel music, in the special styles of preaching, praying, and worship that characterize African/African American religious rituals. These idioms have had an impact upon the African Methodist Episcopal Church and this denomination bears the imprint of the African/African American experience. Psalms 68:31; Songs of Songs 1:5-6

using your spiritual gifts

...to grow your church

God calls believers into fellowship with fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. Believers are admonished to assemble together and encourage each other as we work diligently to spread the good news of the gospel. Every member is therefore responsible for not only spending time in prayer seeking God's direction and purpose for their life and the use of their spiritual gifts and talents, but members also have a responsibility to identify ministries within the church that are a good fit with their gifts and talents.

When we use our gifts and talents to serve God, we not only bring glory to God's name, but we equip the body with the tools necessary to live a more fulfilling life in Christ (Read Ephesians 4:11-16; Romans 12:4-8; I Corinthians 12: 4-8, 27-31; and I Corinthians 14:12). Where will you serve in the body of Christ so that your gifts and talents can glorify God?
