Template - Business Continuity Plan

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A business continuity plan (BCP) is based on a business impact analysis (BIA), which helps define critical activities and the impacts that can lead to their interruption.

The purpose of the BCP is to document all the strategies and solutions that a company can use to maintain or resume its operations in a crisis situation, as well as the maximum downtime (MDT) during which service cannot be provided to clients.

Please see the business impact analysis appendix to complete this table.

Critical activities

Business areas	Critical activities	MDT (example)
Services/operations		15 minutes
		4-24 hrs
		24-48 hrs
		48-72 hrs
		More than 72 hrs

The BCP is based on determining consequences rather than the nature of the incident. This approach helps the company optimize its organizational resilience using the tools it needs to react to different situations, not just hypothetical ones.

3. LOSS OF BUILDING OR BUILDING ACCESS

Loss of your building refers to situations where the usual workplace is inaccessible for whatever reason. This can involve not being able to retrieve equipment or other tools that are necessary for operations.

For each activity, indicate the number of employees involved in activity in all business locations

Sei	Service or operations carried out on all of the organization's sites
	Critical activities #1
Number of employees perfo	orming activities
Head office	Site 2	Site 3	Site 4
	Cuitina	Loodividioo #2
Name to a second and a second asset of		l activities #2
Number of employees perfo	orming activities
Head office	Site 2	Site 3	Site 4
	Ouitia	1 4: -: 4: 40
	Critical activities #3
Number of employees perfo	orming activities
Head office	Site 2	Site 3	Site 4
Total number of emplo	woos working on all bu	icinose citos

	Total number of employees working on all business sites Including managers, administrative assistants, etc.
Head office Site 2 Site 3 Site 4

You can combine activities and group names together if employees perform more than one critical activity.

Continuity strategy

During this period:

- a) The crisis management cell is activated and mobilized
- b) Clients are notified that services are being offered through other business sites—or not. They can be cancelled by:
 - a. calling clients
 - b. posting notices on entrances
 - c. recording a central voicemail message
 - d. posting a message on the company website
- c) Employees are notified of the situation
- d) Subsequent crisis cell meetings are planned

Reference sheet: possible strategies and solutions

- 1. Critical activities are relocated to another of the company's business places
- 2. Critical activities are relocated to a temporary site
- 3. Calls are rerouted to another team and work is reassigned
- 4. Employees are relocated to their homes and given remote access
- 5. Other:
 - a. Plan for travelling to other business places
 - b. Call transfer procedure
 - c. etc.

Incorporate measures for implementing strategies and solutions.
