A Very Fine House

Stoefer, Barbara Cofer

9780310341239
£9.99
Paperback/softback

Drug prevention activist, advocate for addicts, and current president of the Meth Action Coalition, Barbara Cofer Stoefer, shares her deeply personal story of a mother's Norman Rockwell family turned upside down by her daughter's descent into meth addiction and crime, but while hard truths are faced, freedom is ultimately won.

A Very Fine House is an intimate memoir of a mother's Norman Rockwell family turned upside down by her daughter's descent into meth addiction and crime. Bright and beautiful, Annie is an unlikely candidate for meth. But living fast and hard on the streets of Bend, Oregon, she commits crimes against herself, the community, and her own family.

The author chronicles her child's addiction in a way that other writers have not. What begins as an obsession to save her daughter, and a rage against God for allowing drugs to devour her college-age girl, transforms into release in a life changing letting-go-and-letting-God moment. Stoefer weaves throughout the pages the many gifts that she received on her journey-the insights, epiphanies, lessons, and truths that show her the way to restoration.

Barbara's story of hope and redemption will resonate with others who have friends or relatives facing addiction. But it's also a book for everyone looking for tangible proof that God cares. There is evidence that a power greater than ourselves can achieve what we cannot ... if we can just get out of the way.

Tables in the Wilderness

A Memoir of God Found,

Lost, and Found Again

Preston Yancey

9780310341222
£9.99
Paperback/softback

In Tables in the Wilderness, Preston Yancey arrived at Baylor University in the autumn of 2008 with his life figured out: he was Southern Baptist, conservative, had a beautiful girlfriend he would soon propose to, and planned to study political science. Then God slowly allowed Preston's secure world to fall apart until every piece of what he thought was true was lost: his church, his life of study, his political leanings, his girlfriend, his best friend . . . and his God.

Tables in the Wilderness is the story of one man's slow return to the God he thought he knew. Now, Preston is a patchwork of Anglican spirituality and Baptist sensibility. He shares his story of coming to terms with a God who is bigger than the one he thought he was worshiping-the God of a common faith, the God who makes tables in the wilderness, the God who is found in cathedrals and in forests and in the Eucharist, the God who is so big, that everything must be his.

David Wilkerson

The Cross, the Switchblade, and the Man Who Believed

Gary Wilkerson
and R.S.B. Sawyer

£9.99

ITPE

The Cross and the Switchblade has sold over 16 million copies in 30 languages and was made into a movie starring Pat Boone. Christians will be enthusiastic about reading “the rest of the story” regarding Wilkerson’s life and ministry.

When David Wilkerson moved to New York from rural Pennsylvania in 1958 to confront the gangs who ran the streets, he was a skinny, 120-pound man armed with only a cross and his faith. Using the Word of God and a bit of tough love, Wilkerson dedicated his life to helping some of the most dangerous men and women of the street escape the destructive spiral of drugs and violence and find new life in the Gospel.

The founder of Teen Challenge, a faith-based organization committed to weaning addicts off drugs, as well as the Times Square Church, now a non-denominational church of 8,000 members and still a safe place for those battling sins and addictions, Wilkerson was a hugely influential force for good in the city of New York.

Now readers can enjoy the rest of the story of Wilkerson’s life and ministry, as told by his son Gary, in David Wilkerson: The Cross, the Switchblade, and the Man Who Believed. Readers will be inspired and strengthened in their faith as they read about a man who trusted God to provide in even the most dangerous of circumstances, who carried forward the vision God gave him without looking back, and who saw in the eyes of the drug addicts and gang members what others failed to see-Jesus Christ.

Soul Keeping

Caring for the Most Important
Part of You

John Ortberg,
Christine Anderson

9780310338901

£8.99

Paperback/softback

In Soul Keeping, John Ortberg helps Christians rediscover their soul-the best connection to God there is-and find out why it’s hurting and why neglecting it has set so many believers so far back spiritually. In this six-session, video-based small group Bible study, Ortberg shows that caring for your soul is necessary for your Christian life. John shows participants what your soul is, why it is important, how to assess your soul’s health, and how to care for it so that we can have a meaningful and beautiful life with God and others. When you nurture your soul your life in this world will come to make sense again; you can find your way back to God from hopelessness, depression, relationship struggles, and a lack of fulfillment. Your soul’s resting place is in God, and John Ortberg wants to take participants to that home. This study guide includes discussion questions, video notes, and in-between studies and is designed for use with the Soul Keeping DVD (sold separately).

Sessions include:

- Filling the Hole in Your Soul
- Why God Made You With a Soul
- What’s Soul Got To Do With It
- Finding Your Soul’s True Home
- Empty Souls and Full Garages
- Why We Have a Soul, Brothers and Sisters

Unstoppable

Running the Race You Were Born To Win

Christine Caine

9780310341178

£9.99

Paperback/softback

People of faith are lined up in lanes all over this globe, batons in hand, running the race that matters most in this world-the divine relay! The divine relay is tough. The track is treacherous. There are so many ways to mangle the exchange zones, to overshoot, to be knocked off the track, to drop the baton, to stop running. The church needs champion runners who never give up, who persevere no matter what they encounter, who run to win, unstoppable, no matter the cost. If we pass the baton of faith fluidly in the exchange zone from person to person, from generation to generation, we speed unstoppable toward the finish line. But if we fumble the exchange, the whole team, the whole church, suffers. Some runners even stop running and walk right out of the race. Discover just how important it is to get the “exchange zone” right, to ensure that no runners stop running and walk off the field, but that every runner becomes unstoppable in their dedication to carry their baton of faith to the next runner.

Five Commitments to

Fail-Proof Your Marriage

Craig Groeschel

9780310333845

£9.99

Paperback/softback

You know the stats, and they are horrifying. 50% of marriages don't make it. With those kinds of odds, is it even possible to have a great marriage? Craig Groeschel believes so, but not if you treat it like everyone else does. In this groundbreaking new book, New York Times bestselling author and pastor Craig Groeschel and his wife Amy show engaged and married couples how to conquer the odds in a culture where I do doesn't necessarily mean forever and find the joy, passion, and strength of a marriage built by God. Craig and Amy present the 5 commitments all spouses need to make in order to absolutely fail-proof their marriage. Starting "right now" from this day forward.

1. Seek God
2. Fight fair
3. Have fun
4. Stay pure
5. Never give up

If readers earnestly choose to do all five of these things, they'll discover a richer, deeper, more authentic relationship and a more rewarding and passionate love life than they could have ever imagined.

The Daring Heart of David Livingstone: Exile, African Slavery, and the Publicity Stunt That Saved Millions
Jay Milbrandt
 9781595555922
 £14.99
 Hardback
 ITPE follows

The untold story of the great explorer, David Livingstone-his faith and his heroic efforts to end the African slave trade.

Saint? Missionary? Scientist? Explorer?

The titles applied to David Livingstone since his death are eclectic enough to seem dubious, and with good reason. In view of his own journals, saint is out of the question; even missionary is problematic when one considers his conversion record. But despite his fame as a scientist and explorer, titles he certainly earned, these were not the fields through which Livingstone left his most indelible mark on Africa.

Above all, David Livingstone was a vociferous abolitionist.

Yet few think of Livingstone as one of the most influential anti-slavery proponents of the nineteenth century. Somehow, his impact on abolishing what he called “this awful slave-trade” continues to be overlooked as the centerpiece of his African mission.

Until now.

The Daring Heart of David Livingstone is Livingstone’s story told in full, from the beginning of his time in Africa to the legislation that saved millions after his death. By the time he died in the heart of Africa, Livingstone had lost his family, his career, and his fortune. Popular myth says he sacrificed all this simply to find the source of the Nile-but that falls far short of the truth. Livingstone’s Christian legacy was his quest to end slavery.

In the Grip of Grace: Your Father Always Caught You. He Still Does
Max Lucado
 9780529100511
 £9.99
 Paperback/softback

Get caught! Life is full of fumbles and stumbles. Fraught with opportunities to make mistakes, occasions to feel guilty, and the drive to “do it yourself.” The pressure to be self-sufficient is high, but it isn’t the life God offers. The way of the world will direct you to try harder and work smarter so that you can take care of yourself and even make yourself successful. But the way of the cross will point toward the place where you stop striving . . . stop pushing . . . stop every self-initiated effort-so that you can fall into the boundless, liberating, refreshing grace of God! Just imagine being love-driven instead of self-propelled. Imagine abandoning your life to Jesus instead of trying to save yourself. Can you imagine exchanging your fears for that peace that passes understanding? Being relaxed and free instead of stressed-out and anxious? If you can imagine enjoying God instead of trying to repay him, then you can imagine grace. So go ahead! Jump off the cliff of self-sufficiency. Leap out of legalism. Walk off the pier of guilt and condemnation. That’s the only way you’ll land in the strong arms of the Father who loves you . . . the Father who catches you-every time-in the grip of his grace.

 Paperback/softback

Key messages by today's leading Christian voices on what it means to possess a passion for Jesus Christ

What exactly is it that instills passion in a person's soul? What brings the fire to make a difference, the desire for significance, the power to live a life that matters? And who will lead us in this quest toward the future of the Church? In this remarkable book, some of today's most gifted communicators highlight the dedicated generation that is rising up to show us how to lean toward the centrality of Jesus Christ and His bright light of glory that brings purpose to our own lives and proper glory to God the Father.

Since it first began in 1995, Passion has had the privilege of encountering millions of believers under the age of 25, a sea of men and women whose lives have been transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit. Their voice is getting louder as they rise, united as a generation, bringing hope and light to the world.

Author and general editor Louie Giglio has brought together these incredible authors to share their thoughts on what it means to burn with a passion for Christ. As delivered to Passion Conferences, the book includes contributions from Giglio himself as well as multiple chapters from:

- Francis Chan
- John Piper
- Beth Moore

Yawning at Tigers:
 You Can't Tame God,
 So Stop Trying
 Drew Nathan Dyck
 9781400205455
 £9.99
 Paperback/softback

In our increasingly shallow, self-centered world, quaint notions such as timeless truth and reverence for a holy, awe-inspiring God seem irretrievably lost. They're not.

Many of us have fashioned a domesticated deity—a casual, malleable source of love and good feelings as we define them—and yet our spiritual lives are sedate, dry, devoid of passion or purpose.

Even so, today's postmodern epidemic of rampant restlessness—and our failed, often destructive attempts to ease it—may be evidence of an ancient ache, a deep hunger for transcendence in all of us.

Drew Nathan Dyck makes a compelling case that the more we all seek is available by knowing and worshiping the dangerous God of Scripture—a God who is paradoxically untamable and accessible, impossibly mysterious and intimately knowable, above and beyond our physical world yet powerfully present within it. He is a God who beckons us to see him with fresh eyes and let him lead us to a faith that is wild, adventurous, and rooted in a deep understanding of his eternal character.

Yawning at Tigers charts a course away from the “safe” harbor of sanitized, predictable Christianity, into deeper waters where, yes, danger lurks, but where God's majesty, love, and power finally become more real and transformative than we could have imagined.

The Book of Revelation Made Clear (International Edition):
 A Down-to-Earth Guide to Understanding the Most Mysterious Book of the Bible
 Tim LaHaye, Timothy E. Parker
 9780529116901
 £9.99
 Paperback/softback

A fun and fascinating way to learn about the book of Revelation. The Bible's final book, Revelation, can seem intimidating or downright impossible to comprehend – even for serious students of the Scriptures. Filled with complex imagery, vivid violence, and challenging spiritual references, Revelation is often overlooked or ignored in favor of more straightforward, easier-to-digest biblical material. Yet the capstone of the canon need not remain shrouded in so much impenetrable mystery. In this engaging, refreshingly accessible book, Bible scholar and best-selling author Tim LaHaye (originator of the Left Behind series) and renowned puzzle master Timothy E. Parker (founder of The Universal Crossword, King James Games, and Master Puzzles) demystify Revelation for the benefit of modern readers. Absorb this book and discover afresh, or for the first time, the richness of Revelation and its God-breathed, life-changing power to deepen your walk of faith.

Killing Lions (International Edition):
A Guide Through the Trials
Young Men Face

John Eldredge, Samuel Eldredge

9780529116918

£9.99

Paperback/softback

John Eldredge offers an inside look into the conversations between father and son, answering questions and sharing lessons about love, money, work, God, and life. Who came up with the notion that the day you graduate from college you are a fully developed adult stepping into a wonderful and fully developed life? It's madness. Life just doesn't follow a clean, clear linear path. More important, people don't. Killing Lions is an exploration, by father and son, of the questions young men face coming into manhood—questions that continue to haunt many men well into middle age. In the summer of 2012, Samuel Eldredge was one year out of college and about to ask a girl to marry him. He turned to his dad for counsel, and what unfolded over several months was a series of conversations about love, money, work, God, and life that became the passion for Killing Lions. In the middle of those conversations, John asked Sam, "How many of your peers have anyone they can ask these questions?" Sam answered, "I don't know any. No one." Killing Lions is the dialog between a young man trying to find his life's direction and an older man offering wisdom and insight on the timeless issues of the journey toward adulthood. Every man, young or not, can benefit from the life lessons John Eldredge has passed on to his son.

Row for Freedom: Crossing an Ocean
in Search of Hope

*Julia Immonen,
Craig Borlase, Bear Grylls*

9780529101471

£9.99

Paperback/softback

The incredible story of one woman's record-breaking row across the Atlantic to draw attention to human trafficking and come to terms with her own past. In December 2011, 31-year-old Julia Immonen and four other women took on a challenge completed by fewer people than have climbed Mount Everest or gone into space: row 3,000 miles, unaided, from the Canary Islands to Barbados. Row for Freedom chronicles that journey, weaving together two narratives: the details of the grueling, peril-filled crossing that broke two world records and Julia's own story of her search for hope and purpose against a background of relationships scarred by violence.

As Julia's physical and emotional treks unfold, she highlights the plight of the 27 million victims of the modern-day slave trade, which serves as the motivation for her row. In addition to becoming motivated to play their own part in promoting freedom, readers will be inspired by Julia's self-discovery and her team's triumph in one of the most formidable physical quests ever undertaken.

Frederick: A Story of Boundless Hope

Frederick Ndabaramiye,

Amy Parker

9780529101198

ITPE follows

“My God won’t let me do that.”These seven words of boundless hope would irreversibly change the life of the teenage boy who spoke them. On April 7, 1994 the life of Frederick Ndabaramiye and his family changed forever as the Rwandan genocide erupted in their homeland. As Frederick faced the genocidaires, he noted the machete that hung from the right hand closest to him; he wondered if his would soon be added to the layers of dried blood that clung to the blade. Either way, young Frederick knew that he wouldn’t be able to carry out the orders just given to him, to raise that blade against the other passengers of the bus, regardless of the race marked on their identity cards.That bold decision would cause Frederick to lose his hands. But what the killers meant for harm, God intended for good. The cords that bound him served as a tourniquet, saving his life when his hands were hacked away. This new disability eventually fueled Frederick’s passion to show the world that disabilities do not have to stop you from living a life of undeniable purpose. Through miraculous mercy and divine appointment, Frederick forgives those who harmed him and goes on to fully grasp his God-given mission. In this extraordinary true story of forgiveness, faith, and hope, you will be challenged, convicted, and forever converted to believers of the impossible.

Paperback/softback

Heaven descends to earth as we celebrate and rejoice in the true meaning of Christmas. The true Christmas message is so often lost in the busyness and profit-making venues during the holiday season. How does one wade through all of the worldly diversions and still find Christ? Drawing from a lifetime of writings and sermons, beloved preacher and author Billy Graham pierces through the meaningless activity we get caught up in by taking readers back to the time when heaven descended to earth-and the place where Christ was born. Included in this classic Christmas message are excerpts from This Christmas Night, Scriptural accounts of Christ's birth, favorite carols, and beautiful poetry by Ruth Bell Graham. It's perfect for keeping focused on what's truly important during the bustle of the season.

Miracle on Voodoo Mountain: A Young Woman's Remarkable Story of Pushing Back the Darkness
for the Children of Haiti

Megan Boudreaux
9780529110947
£13.99
ITPE follows

"It took months of God waking me up in the middle of the night before I realized I was the one He was calling to leave my comfortable American life and move to Haiti." Miracle on Voodoo Mountain is the inspirational memoir of an accomplished and driven 24-year old who quit her job, sold everything, and moved to Haiti, by herself-all without a clear plan of action. Megan Boudreaux had visited Haiti on a few humanitarian trips but each trip multiplied the sense that someone needed to address the devastation-especially with the children, many of whom were kept as household slaves on the poverty-stricken and earthquake-devastated Caribbean island. God guided her every step as she moved blindly to a foreign land without knowing the language, the people, or the future. From becoming the adoptive mother of former child slaves, to receiving the divine gift of the Haitian Creole language, to starting, building, and running a school for more than 500 children, "the amaziness of what God did after I made the choice to be obedient is incredible," said Megan. Three years later, six acres on Bellevue Mountain in Gressier is the home of the nonprofit Respire Haiti at the former site of voodoo worship, and in the area that many still come to make animal sacrifices, Megan and her staff of nearly 200 are transforming this community as they educate, feed, and address the needs.

Before Amen:
The Power of a Simple Prayer

Max Lucado

9780849948480

£11.99

ITPE follows

We all pray . . . some. We pray to stay sober, centered, or solvent. When the lump is deemed malignant. When the money runs out before the month does. When the marriage is falling apart. We pray. But wouldn't we like to pray more? Better? Stronger? With more fire, faith, and fervency? Yet we have kids to feed, bills to pay, deadlines to meet. The calendar pounces on our good intentions like a tiger on a rabbit. And what about our checkered history with prayer? Uncertain words. Unmet expectations. Unanswered requests. We aren't the first to struggle with prayer. The first followers of Jesus needed prayer guidance too. In fact, prayer is the only tutorial they ever requested. And Jesus gave them a prayer. Not a lecture on prayer. Not the doctrine of prayer. He gave them a quotable, repeatable, portable prayer. Couldn't we use the same? In Before Amen best-selling author Max Lucado joins readers on a journey to the very heart of biblical prayer, offering hope for doubts and confidence even for prayer wimps. Distilling prayers in the Bible down to one pocket-sized prayer, Max reminds readers that prayer is not a privilege for the pious nor the art of a chosen few. Prayer is simply a heartfelt conversation between God and his child. Let the conversation begin.
